in Theatre History Jacqueline S. Bratton,2003-11-27 Over the last two hundred years some important ways of understanding theatre history have been undervalued or ignored by scholars Leading theatre historian Jacky Bratton employs new approaches to examine and challenge this development and to discover how theatre history has been chronicled and how it is interpreted Using a series of case studies from nineteenth century British theatre Bratton examines the difference between the existence of the drama plays and play literature and the stage performance theatre building and attendance By rejecting literary history Bratton experiments with other ways of analysing the past and the ways that have actually seemed relevant to the people on stage This book suggests new histories of theatrical story telling of performing families and of the disregarded dramatic energy of Victorian entertainment As a result we gain a new perspective on theatre history not only for the Romantic and Victorian periods but for the discipline overall Developing Theatre in the Global South Nic

Leonhardt,Christopher B. Balme,2024-04-09 Drawing on new research from the ERC project Developing Theatre this collection presents innovative institutional approaches to the theatre historiography of the Global South since 1945 Covering perspectives from Africa Asia the Middle East and Latin America as well as Eastern Europe the chapters explore how US philanthropy international organisations and pan African festivals all contributed to the globalisation and institutionalisation of the performing arts in the Global South During the Cultural Cold War the Global North intervened in and promoted forms of cultural infrastructure that were deemed adaptable to any environment This form of technopolitics impacted the construction of national theatres the introduction of new pedagogical tools and the invention of the workshop as a format The networks of experts responsible for this foreground seminal figures both celebrated Augusto Boal Efua Sutherland but also lesser known Albert Botbol Severino Montano Metin And who contributed to the worldwide theatrical epistemic community of the postwar years Developing Theatre in the Global South investigates the institutional factors that led to the emergence of professional theatre in the postwar period throughout the decolonising world The book's institutional and transnational approach enables theatre studies to overcome its still strong national and local focus on plays and productions and connect it to current discourses in transnational and global history The Theatre of Martin McDonagh Lilian Chambers, Eamonn Jordan, 2006 With such plays as The Beauty Queen 1996 The Cripple of Inishmaan 1997 The Lonesome West 1997 A Skull in Connemara 1997 The Lieutenant of Inishmore 2001 and The Pillowman 2003 Martin McDonagh has made a huge reputation for himself in internationally winning multiple awards for his work and enjoying universal critical acclaim Most recently he won an Oscar for his short film Six Shooter 2006 This collection of essays is a vital and significant response to the many challenges set by McDonagh for those involved in the production and reception of his work The volume brings together critics and commentators from around the world who assess the work from a diverse range of often provocative approaches What is not surprising is the focus and commitment of the engagement given the controversial and still Whether for or against this is an essential read for all who wish to enter the complex debate about the Theatre of Martin McDonagh Playwriting

Effiong Johnson, 2011-02-16 Summary The Nigerian theatre milieu is trapped in a cobweb of strangulating strings Little wonder therefore that its growth has been impaired over the years The numerous multi tribal thrusts in Nigeria disallow the full growth and development of theatre forms and trends The university and other degree awarding institutions engaged in theatre studies have not carved out uniquely distinguishing styles that can be said to be theirs The Nigerian theatre makers themselves are not style driven and technique creating An ideal repertory of form can hardly be identified with them in a sustainable manner The National Theatre set up as a symbol of the nation's cultural pride now stands as a totem for the nation's creative shame The state owned Cultural Centre Boards are devoid of objectives in focused cultural promotions Many graduates of the arts prefer other creative businesses A few die hards are bedeviled by frustrating dilemmas as businessmen refuse to patronise theatre because they consider it a wasteful venture while international agencies shun it because of its profit making outlook
