Bertold Ulsamer, 2020-08-11 This book takes you on an intense personal journey that will lead you deeper into yourself and closer to the connections with your parents You do not need the involvement of your parents to do this Yes father or mother may even have passed away already The result of the journey more inner peace more self confidence more strength and more joy of life And actual encounters with parents become more relaxed and friendly Would you like to improve your relationship with your parents Maybe you feel an inner distance maybe you have withdrawn from them a bit or have completely broken off contact Perhaps you are also angry or hurt and never want to have anything to do with them again If this is the case the first step is important for you you do not have to forgive your parents in order to come to peace with them You have a right to your reproaches But all further steps will help you to find new perspectives Reconciliation then sometimes falls into your lap as a fruit that has ripened by itself It is worth it The relationship with father and mother shapes one s own life and has a deep influence on the success of one s own partnership on the relationship with one s own children and the satisfaction with one s own life In my more than 25 years of work on reconciliation between children and parents 7 steps have emerged which are useful to come to peace with the parents in depth In addition I talk about further blockades which come from the family system and which sometimes have to be dissolved These steps and other important insights are conveyed practically in this book You will experience the essence of my seminars and will be specifically instructed to take important steps inwardly

Making Peace with Your Enemy Lætitia Bucaille, 2019-06-14 Reconciliation between political antagonists who went to war against each other is not a natural process Hostility toward an enemy only slowly abates and the political resolution of a conflict is not necessarily followed by the immediate pacification of society and reconciliation among individuals Under what conditions can a combatant be brought to understand the motivations of his enemies consider them as equals and develop a new relationship going so far as to even forgive them By comparing the experiences of veterans of the South African and Franco Algerian conflicts Laetitia Bucaille seeks to answer this question She begins by putting the postconflict and postcolonial order that characterizes South Africa France and Algeria into perspective examining how each country provided symbolic and material rewards to the veterans and how past conflict continues to shape the present Exploring the narratives of ex combatants Bucaille also fosters an understanding of their intimate experiences as well as their emotions of pride loss and guilt In its comparative analysis of South Africa and Algeria Making Peace with Your Enemy reveals a paradox In Algeria the rhetoric of the regime is characterized by resentment toward colonizing France but relations between individuals Reconciliation are warm However in South Africa democratization was based on official reconciliation but distance and wariness between whites and blacks prevail Despite these differences Bucaille argues South African Algerian and French ex adversaries face a similar challenge how to extricate oneself from colonial domination and the violence of war in order to build relationships based on trust Making Peace Elaine Brooks, Len Fox, 1998-07-28 Provides content based language instruction through readings on peace education topics
