A Corrupt Tree: An Encyclopaedia of Crimes committed by the Church of Rome against Humanity and the Human Spirit A.S., 2014-01-13 A Corrupt Tree is a unique extensively researched four volume exposé of the dark side of the Church of Rome It reveals that for nearly two thousand years the Church's fundamental characteristic has been its self serving abuse of religio corporate power A large proportion of this first volume provides a detailed catalogue of the multitude of unholy popes

Included are those who were immature capricious corrupt lascivious fanatical senile truly mad megalomaniac tyrannical murderous and wholesale killers It confirms that for many many centuries the popes were corrupt cruel inhumane and despotic In an age of savagery they were the leaders in barbarity in the subsequent age of enlightenment they have persistently resisted the march of progress Additionally the popes were wholesale killers who made the principle of assassination a law of the Christian Church Accordingly the Church has shed more innocent blood than any other institution that has ever existed among mankind Here also are presented the cupidity corruption and sexual misconducts of lesser ecclesiastics including cardinals bishops priests monks and nuns Pope Honorius III for example described his priests as worse than beasts wallowing in their dung The Church's ruthless stranglehold on knowledge and learning is catalogued in detail Mathematics philosophy and science were repressed Selected applied theology ruled the world Everything was explained but nothing was understood The chapters on censorship reveal that even works of considerable literary or philosophical merit did not escape A large number of writings which eventually became classics of European culture were condemned and prohibited The Church also exhibited a vitriolic hatred of those who translated the Bible into the vernacular Many of these men were annihilated Holy books were burned in large numbers particularly the Jewish Talmud It is clearly demonstrated that the Church held back civilisation for over fifteen hundred years Century after century passed away and left the peasantry but little better than the cattle in the fields Finally the unholy behaviours of the numerous popes cardinals and lesser ecclesiastics are shown to establish unequivocally that the Church of Rome is neither holy nor apostolic The ultimate message of these volumes is that to become an exemplary institution and to play a truly humane role in the world's future the Catholic Church must change

The Italian City Republics Daniel Philip Waley, Trevor Dean, 2013-09-13 Daniel Waley and Trevor Dean illustrate how from the eleventh century onwards many dozens of Italian towns achieved independence as political entities unhindered by any centralising power Until the fourteenth century when the regimes of individual tyrants took over in most towns these communes were the scene of a precocious and very well documented experiment in republican self government Focusing on the typical medium sized towns rather than the better known cities the authors draw on a rich variety of contemporary material both documentary and literary to portray the world of the communes illustrating the patriotism and public spirit as well as the equally characteristic factional strife which was to tear them apart Discussion of the artistic and social lives of the inhabitants shows how these towns were the seed bed of the cultural achievements of the early Renaissance In this fourth edition Trevor Dean has expanded the book's treatment of religion women housing architecture and art to take account of recent trends in the abundant historiography of these topics A new selection of illuminating images has been included and the bibliography brought up to date Both students and the general reader interested in Italian history literature and art will find this accessible book a rewarding and fascinating read
