West Virginia History, 1995 The West Virginia Encyclopedia Ken Sullivan, 2006 Untied Kingdom Stuart Ward, 2023-02-16 A panoramic history uncovering the demise of Britishness as a global civic idea since the Second World War Megalopolis Revisited Jean Gottmann, 1987 Black Feminist Archaeology Whitney Battle-Baptiste, 2017-07-05

Black feminist thought has developed in various parts of the academy for over three decades but has made only minor inroads into archaeological theory and practice Whitney Battle Baptiste outlines the basic tenets of Black feminist thought and research for archaeologists and shows how it can be used to improve contemporary historical archaeology She demonstrates this using Andrew Jackson s Hermitage the W E B Du Bois Homesite in Massachusetts and the Lucy Foster house in Andover which represented the first archaeological excavation of an African American home Her call for an archaeology more sensitive to questions of race and gender is an important development for the field A Prophet of the People Lauren V. Jarvis, 2024-03-01 In 1910 Isaiah Shembe was struggling He had left his family and quit his job as a sanitation worker to become a Baptist evangelist but he ended his first mission without much to show Little did he know that he would soon establish the Nazareth Church as he began to attract attention from people left behind by industrial capitalism in South Africa By his death in 1935 Shembe was an internationally known prophet and healer described by his peers as better off than all the Black people In A Prophet of the People Isaiah Shembe and the Making of a South African Church historian Lauren V Jarvis provides a fascinating and intimate portrait of one of South Africa s most famous religious figures and in turn the making of modern South Africa Following Shembe from his birth in the 1860s across many environments and contexts Jarvis illuminates the tight links between the spread of Christianity strategies of evasion and the capacious forms of community that continue to shape South Africa today Africans and Britons in the Age of Empires, 1660-1980 Myles Osborne, Susan Kingsley Kent, 2015-03-24 Africans and Britons in the Age of Empires 1660 1980 tells the stories of the intertwined lives of African and British peoples over more than three centuries In seven chapters and an epilogue Myles Osborne and Susan Kingsley Kent explore the characters that comprised the British presence in Africa the slave traders and slaves missionaries and explorers imperialists and miners farmers settlers lawyers chiefs prophets intellectuals politicians and soldiers of all colors The authors show that the oft told narrative of a monolithic imperial power ruling inexorably over passive African victims no longer stands scrutiny rather at every turn Africans and Britons interacted with one another in a complex set of relationships that involved as much cooperation and negotiation as resistance and force whether during the era of the slave trade the world wars or the period of decolonization The British presence provoked a wide range of responses reactions and transformations in various aspects of African life but at the same time the experience of empire in Africa and its ultimate collapse also compelled the British to view themselves and their empire in new ways Written by an Africanist and a historian of imperial Britain and illustrated with maps and photographs Africans and Britons in
