Metropolitan Furniture Of The Georgian Years:

Metropolitan Furniture of the Georgian Years F. Lewis Hinckley, 1988 According to all British lay authorities on Old English Furniture all of the bona fide Georgian masterpieces illustrated in this volume were designed and executed somewhere in England Through extensive and detailed comparative studies Hinckley contradicts popular theory and maintains that the masterpieces were produced in Dublin Ireland This edition contains photos of some 322 examples more than five times the number of illustrated examples than first appeared in the 1953 volume Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Hyde Park Collection, 1965-1990 Patrick Broome, 1989 Georgian Gothic Peter Lindfield, 2016 Conclusion Appendix Bibliography Glossary Index Irish Furniture Knight of Glin, James Peill, 2007 This lavishly illustrated and comprehensive volume is the first devoted entirely to the subject of Irish furniture and woodwork It provides a detailed survey encompassing everything from medieval choir stalls to magnificent drawing room suites for the great houses from earliest times to the end of the eighteenth century The first part of the book presents a chronological history illustrated with superb examples of Irish furniture and interior carving In a lively text the Knight of Glin and James Peill consider a broad range of topics including a discussion of the influence of Irish craftsmen in the colonies of America The second part of the book is a fascinating pictorial catalogue of different types of surviving furniture including chairs stools baroque sideboards elegant tea and games tables bookcases and mirrors The book also features an index of Irish furniture makers and craftsmen of the eighteenth century compiled from Dublin newspaper advertisements and other contemporary sources Published for the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art Decorative Furniture George Leland Hunter, 1923 Books in Print, 1991 Furniture from British India and Ceylon Amin Jaffer, Karina Corrigan, 2001 Furniture from British India and Ceylon is divided into two sections The introductory chapters provide contextual background and discuss subjects such as the British response to things Indian the domestic interior and factors which shaped its appearance and the sources of furniture Amin Jaffer provides a reconstruction of the complex furniture trade between East and West offering new insights into the relationship between European Chinese and Indian craftsmen which shed light on the difficulty of correctly attributing colonial furniture The second section is an extensive catalogue of two hundred pieces from the collections of the Victoria and Albert Museum and the Peabody Essex Museum Each piece of furniture is illustrated often with more than one view and contextual illustrations including many unusual and evocative images of domestic interiors and craftsmen at work are provided throughout the book A History of Interior Design John F. Pile, 2005 Delivers the inside story on 6 000 years of personal and public space John Pile acknowledges that interior design is a field with unclear boundaries in which construction architecture the arts and crafts technology and product design all overlap
