Mexican Devotional Retablos Joseph F. Chorpennig, 1994      A Century of Retablos Charles M. Carrillo, Thomas J. Steele, 2007 In recent years tremendous attention has been focused on the Arts of 18th and 19th century New Mexico This colonial period benefited from a creative and religious community that populated the region Retablos painted panels depicting saints worshiped in churches and private homes were an important part of the rich culture The Lyon Collection beautifully illustrates the breadth of Retablo painting by examining specific Santo s stylistic development as well as the iconography and social history of each painting This landmark publication will be of great use to the ongoing study of colonial southwestern art and history 107 colour illustrations      The Mystical Gesture Robert Boenig, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2000 These essays explore the spiritual culture shared by texts and writers in Western Europe from the 13th to 17th centuries the visionaries mystics and nuns who were poets or scholars and the creative writers who drew on spiritual themes The topics range chronologically from the late 13th to late 17th centuries and geographically from Germany England Italy France Spain and New Spain Mexico though the volume s centre is the spiritual culture of 16th century Spain Common concerns of each essay are the exploration of spiritual culture how some texts and writers shape expectations attending the life of the spirit and how they are in turn shaped by them The sub themes many of the essays share are the gendering of spiritual culture and the relationship between traditional literary genres like poetry and drama and spiritual discourse Each text or spiritual figure covered here has a distinctive spiritual voice a mystical gesture that contributes an individual mysticism to the common spiritual culture they all share Each scholar in her or his own way defines this mystical gesture The essays analyze Mechthild von Magdurg Piers Plowman The Second Shepherds Play Catherine of Siena Bernardo de Laredo Teresa of Avila Alonso de la Fuente Luisa de Carvajal y Mendoza Cecilia de nacimiento Margaret Mary Alaconque and Sor Juana      The Art of Maria Tomasula Soo Y. Kang, 2022-11-15 Maria Tomasula s still life paintings are absolutely captivating dramatizing luscious objects of saturated colors and meticulous details through the spotlight effect against a dark backdrop Beyond their immediate appeal however the still lifes usually contain disturbing features such as flowers being sharply pierced by hooks and nails or isolated body parts such as bones and organs that seem to be fiercely alive Although the pictures are materialistically appealing due to the illusionistic style of the artist they lend themselves to a depth of iconography that has not been accounted for in previous writings on her art This book is the first comprehensive monograph on Tomasula b 1958 unraveling her complex iconography that is founded on her Mexican American heritage and Catholicism but also tracing the European still life tradition It shows that her paintings reflect her feminist and philosophical leanings influenced by various intellectuals including Baruch Spinoza Gilles Deleuze and the proponents of New Materialism Her still life converges the old with new interests it pays tribute to traditional Mexican and European motifs but also reflects ideas and mannerism that speak to the contemporary audience This research evidences the complexity of the Mexican

American experience which merges divergent cultural and ideological perspectives from Latin America North America and Europe in varied ways for different and unique individuals      Art and Faith in Mexico Elizabeth Netto Calil Zarur, Charles Muir Lovell, 2001 Studies retablos Mexican paintings on tin created in the latter half of the nineteenth century from art religious and historical perspectives and discusses efforts made to restore and conserve the artwork      A Gift of Angels, 2010-09-20 It rises suddenly out of the Sonoran Desert landscape towering over the tallest tree or cactus a commanding building with a sensuous dome elliptical vaults and sturdy bell towers There is nothing else like it around nor does it seem there should be This incongruity of setting is what strikes first time visitors to Mission San Xavier del Bac This great church is of another place and another time while its beauty is universal and timeless Mission San Xavier del Bac is a two century old Spanish church in southern Arizona located just a few miles from downtown Tucson a metropolis of more than half a million people in the American Southwest A National Historic Landmark since 1963 the mission's graceful baroque art and architecture have drawn visitors from all over the world Now Bernard Fontana the leading expert on San Xavier and award winning photographer Edward McCain team up to bring us a comprehensive view of the mission as we've never seen it before With 200 stunning full color photographs and incisive text illuminating the religious historical and motivational context of these images A Gift of Angels is a must have for tourists scholars and other visitors to San Xavier From its glorious architecture all the way down to the finest details of its art Mission San Xavier del Bac is indeed a gift of angels

Sanctuaries of Earth, Stone, and Light Gloria Fraser Giffords, 2022-08-23 Over nearly three centuries Jesuit Franciscan and Dominican missionaries built a network of churches throughout the new world of New Spain Since the early twentieth century scholars have studied the colonial architecture of southern New Spain but they have largely ignored the architecture of the north However as this book clearly demonstrates the colonial architecture of Northern New Spain an area that encompasses most of the southwestern United States and much of northern Mexico is strikingly beautiful and rich with meaning After more than two decades of research both in the field and in archives around the world Gloria Fraser Giffords has authored the definitive book on this architecture Giffords has a remarkable eye for detail and for images both grand and diminutive Because so many of the buildings she examines have been destroyed she sleuthed through historical records in several countries and she discovered that the architecture and material culture of northern New Spain reveal the influences of five continents As she examines objects as large as churches or as small as ornamental ceramic tile she illuminates the sometimes subtle sometimes striking influences of the religious social and artistic traditions of Europe from the beginning of the Christian era through the nineteenth century of the Muslim countries ringing the Mediterranean from the seventh through the fifteenth centuries and of Northern New Spain's indigenous peoples whose art influenced the designs of occupying Europeans Sanctuaries of Earth Stone and Light is a pathbreaking book featuring 200 stunning photographs and over 300 illustrations ranging from ceremonial garments to detailed floor plans of the churches      Stained Glass in

Catholic Philadelphia Jean M. Farnsworth, Carmen R. Croce, Joseph F. Chorpenning, 2002 Stained Glass in Catholic Philadelphia tells the remarkable story of the thousands of stained glass windows made in America England France and Germany in the more than 400 churches chapels and institutions of the five county Archdiocese of Philadelphia Since 1997 more than 450 sites have been visited to document the archdiocese s windows by photographing them This process resulted in the creation of a photo archive of over 50 000 images Using this archive as a foundation a team of scholars from a variety of institutions and with specialties in medieval studies architectural and social history Christian iconography decorative and liturgical arts the craft creative reuse and historic preservation of stained glass was assembled to study these windows The result is this profusely illustrated book of original research that makes accessible a significant and highly visible but neglected aspect of our ecclesial national and regional cultural heritage BOOK JACKET Book jacket
