Architecture and Identity Peter Herrle, Erik Wegerhoff, 2008 This book brings together complex fields of knowledge and globally splintered discourses on a subject that is experienced not only by scholars but in the everyday lives of people around the world There is a common complaint about the loss of identity which to a substantial degree is being associated with the built environment in cities and specifically with their architecture Architecture and Identity takes a global multidisciplinary look on how identities in contemporary architecture are constructed The general hypothesis underlying this book is that in a globalized world identity in architecture cannot be easily derived from distinct indigenous patterns The book presents forty contributions from various disciplines aiming to destroy the myth of an inheritable or otherwise prefabricated identity Some authors dismantle constructs of identity that have long been considered as solid and unbreakable while others meticulously unravel the construction process of identities in

Neo-Gothic Architecture in Mexico Martin M. Checa-Artasu, 2025-06-02 Neo Gothic architecture is a global phenomenon observed in Mexico from the 1850s to the mid 20th century even with current examples In Mexico there are more than 500 buildings with some neo Gothic element new parishes and churches large temples examples of exterior decorations beautiful sacred furniture and art inside the temples funerary elements at cemeteries graves mausoleums tombs and civil buildings mansions houses schools hospitals porticoes so on This architecture in Mexico spread in two ways through architecture teaching academies but also thanks to the diffusion of bishops and priests who showed images and engravings for master builders stonemasons and other local artisans to copy Finally they built these buildings many times with the support of the parishioners Also the economic and political elites built mansions and houses in that style to show their wealth and financial and political power Something they also did in their tombs and pantheons since there are many built in that style A book on the characteristics agents and causes of the development of the neo Gothic style in Mexico is pioneering and the first of its kind It is a type of architecture extraordinarily little studied in Mexico A study of these characteristics would be of interest to a sector of the academy interested in the topics of history of architecture art studies on religion and culture in general This book covers a huge gap in knowledge about an architectural style widely spread worldwide and that is widely unknown in Mexico and Latin America and that today is already a cultural heritage to be protected disseminated and valued

Resources in Education ,2001-10 Beyond Modernist Masters Felipe Hernández,2009-11-20 Latin America has been an important place for architecture for many decades Masters like Barrag n Dieste Lina Bo Bardi and Niemeyer pointed the way for architectural design all over the world and they continue to do so today Their approach to colors materials and walls had a deep and lasting influence on architectural modernism Since then however and especially in the last fifteen years architecture on the continent has continued to evolve and a lively and extremely creative architecture scene has developed The work of Latin American architects and city planners is often guided by social issues for example the approach to informal settlements on the outskirts of big cities the scarcity of housing and public space the availability of affordable transportation and the important role of cultural infrastructure such as schools libraries and sports facilities as a catalyst for neighborhoods Within this context the book considers numerous projects that have prompted discussion and provided fresh impetus all across Latin America Outstanding projects like the Santo Domingo Library in Medellin Colombia by Giancarlo Mazzanti Alberto Kalach s Liceo Franco Mexicano in Mexico and the works of Alejandro Aravena in Chile show that recent Latin American architecture is more than capable of holding its own beside the works of the founders Felipe Hern ndez is an architect and professor of Architectural Design History and Theory at The University of Liverpool He attended an MA in Architecture and Critical Theory graduating with distinction in 1998 and received his PhD from the University of Nottingham in 2003 He has taught at the Bartlett School of Architecture UCL The Universities of Nottingham Sheffield East London and Nottingham Trent in the United Kingdom as well as at Brown University and Roger Williams University in USA Felipe has published numerous essays and articles examining the situation of contemporary Latin American cities and revealing the multiplicity of architectural practices that operate simultaneously in the constant re shaping of the continent s cities
