Multiple resources for church, home, and community celebrations. Multi-generational Holidays and family events are times for celebration, learning, rituals, food, and fun. This edition of Faithful Celebrations focuses on the months of May, June, and July, when secular holidays inspire us to gather to celebrate God's creation, our freedom, and our families. Key ideas, activities, materials, background information, music, art, recipes, and prayer resources are all included for small, intimate or large, multi-generational groups, as many festivities bring several generations together at church, at home, and in our communities. Celebrate occasions like International Women's Day, Cinco de Mayo, Mother's Day, Father's Day, Memorial Day, Summer Solstice, and July 4th in thoughtful, inclusive, and innovative ways. The Fluid Boundaries of Suffrage and Jim Crow DaMaris B. Hill, 2016-06-03. The Fluid Boundaries of Suffrage and Jim Crow: Staking Claims in the American Heartland engages in an important conversation about race relations in the twentieth century and significantly extends the historical narrative of the Civil Rights Movement. The essays in this collection examine instances of racial and gender oppression in the American heartland, which is conceived of here as having a specific cultural significance which resists diversity in the twentieth century, instances which have often been ignored or overshadowed in typical historical narratives The contributors explore the intersections of suffrage race relations and cultural histories and add to an ongoing dialogue about representations of race and gender within the context of regional and national narratives
