O'Neil, 2024-02-13 The untold chronicles of the looting and collecting of ancient Mesoamerican objects This book traces the fascinating history of how and why ancient Mesoamerican objects have been collected It begins with the pre Hispanic antiquities that first entered European collections in the sixteenth century as gifts or seizures continues through the rise of systematic collecting in Europe and the Americas during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and ends in 1940 the start of Europe's art market collapse at the outbreak of World War II and the coinciding genesis of the large scale art market for pre Hispanic antiquities in the United States Drawing upon archival resources and international museum collections the contributors analyze the ways shifting patterns of collecting and taste including how pre Hispanic objects changed from being viewed as anthropological and scientific curiosities to collectible artworks have shaped modern academic disciplines as well as public private institutional and nationalistic attitudes toward Mesoamerican art As many nations across the world demand the return of their cultural patrimony and ancestral heritage it is essential to examine the historical processes events and actors that initially removed so many objects from their countries of origin A Gift of Angels Bernard L.

Fontana, 2010-09-20 It rises suddenly out of the Sonoran Desert landscape towering over the tallest tree or cactus a commanding building with a sensuous dome elliptical vaults and sturdy bell towers There is nothing else like it around nor does it seem there should be This incongruity of setting is what strikes first time visitors to Mission San Xavier del Bac This great church is of another place and another time while its beauty is universal and timeless Mission San Xavier del Bac is a two century old Spanish church in southern Arizona located just a few miles from downtown Tucson a metropolis of more than half a million people in the American Southwest A National Historic Landmark since 1963 the mission's graceful baroque art and architecture have drawn visitors from all over the world Now Bernard Fontana the leading expert on San Xavier and award winning photographer Edward McCain team up to bring us a comprehensive view of the mission as we've never seen it before With 200 stunning full color photographs and incisive text illuminating the religious historical and motivational context of these images A Gift of Angels is a must have for tourists scholars and other visitors to San Xavier From its glorious architecture all the way down to the finest details of its art Mission San Xavier del Bac is indeed a gift of angels María Izquierdo and Frida Kahlo Nancy Deffebach, 2015-08-15 María Izquierdo 1902 1955 and Frida Kahlo 1907 1954 were the first two Mexican women artists to achieve international recognition During the height of the Mexican muralist movement they established successful careers as easel painters and created work that has become an integral part of Mexican modernism Although the iconic Kahlo is now more famous the two artists had comparable reputations during their lives Both were regularly included in major exhibitions of Mexican art and they were invariably the only women chosen for the most important professional activities and honors In a deeply informed study that prioritizes critical analysis over biographical interpretation Nancy Deffebach places Kahlo's and Izquierdo's oeuvres in their cultural context examining the ways in which the artists participated in the national and artistic discourses of postrevolutionary Mexico Through iconographic analysis of paintings and themes within each artist's oeuvre Deffebach discusses how the artists engaged intellectually with the issues and ideas of their era especially Mexican national identity and the role of women in society In a time when Mexican artistic and national discourses associated the nation with masculinity Izquierdo and Kahlo created images of women that deconstructed gender roles critiqued the status quo and presented more empowering alternatives for women Deffebach demonstrates that paradoxically Kahlo and Izquierdo became the most successful Mexican women artists of the modernist period while most directly challenging the prevailing ideas about gender and what constitutes important art

Surrealism in Latin America Dawn Ades, Rita Eder, Graciela Speranza, 2012-10-16 This collection of essays the first major account of surrealism in Latin America that covers both literary and visual production explores the role the movement played in the construction and recuperation of cultural identities and the ways artists and writers contested embraced and adapted surrealist ideas and practices Surrealism in Latin America provides new Latin American centric scholarship not only about surrealism's impact on the region but also about the region's impact on surrealism It reconsiders the relation between art and anthropology casts new light on the aesthetics of primitivism and makes a strong case for Latin American artists and writers as the inheritors of a movement that effectively went underground after World War II In so doing it expands our understanding of important fascinating figures who are less well known than their counterparts active in Europe and New York Deriving from a conference held at the Getty Research Institute the book is rich in new materials drawn from the GRI's diverse Mexican and South American surrealist collections which include the archives of Vicente Huidobro Enrique Gomez Correa Cesar Moro Enrique Lihn and Emilio Westphalen

New Approaches to Old Stones Yorke M. Rowan, Jennie R. Ebeling, 2016-04-08 Ground stone artefacts were widely used in food production in prehistory However the archaeological community has widely neglected the dataset of ground stone artefacts until now New Approaches to Old Stones offers a theoretical and methodological analysis of the archaeological data pertaining to ground stone tools The essays draw on a range of case studies from the Levant Egypt Crete Anatolia Mexico and North America to examine ground stone technologies From medieval Islamic stone cooking vessels and late Minoan stone vases to the use of stone in ritual and as a symbol of luxury New Approaches to Old Stones offers a radical reassessment of the impact of ground stone artefacts on technological change production and exchange

Unseen Art Claudia Brittenham,2023-01-17 In Unseen Art Claudia Brittenham unravels one of the most puzzling phenomena in Mesoamerican art history why many of the objects that we view in museums today were once so difficult to see She examines the importance that ancient Mesoamerican people assigned to the process of making and enlivening the things we now call art as well as Mesoamerican understandings of sight as an especially godlike and elite power in order to trace a gradual evolution in the uses of secrecy and concealment from a communal practice that fostered social memory to a tool of imperial power Addressing some of the most charismatic of all Mesoamerican sculptures such as Olmec buried offerings Maya lintels and carvings on the undersides of Aztec sculptures Brittenham shows that the creation of unseen art has important implications both for understanding status in ancient Mesoamerica and for analyzing art in the present Spanning nearly three thousand years of the Indigenous art of Mexico Guatemala Honduras and Belize Unseen Art connects the dots between vision power and inequality providing a critical perspective on our own way of looking Catalog of the Robert Goldwater Library, the Metropolitan Museum of Art Robert Goldwater Library,1982 Art and Faith in Mexico Elizabeth Netto Calil Zarur,Charles Muir Lovell,2001 Studies retablos Mexican paintings on tin created in the latter half of the nineteenth century from art religious and historical perspectives and discusses efforts made to restore and conserve the artwork The Dictionary of Art: A to Anckermann Jane Turner,1996 Online ed provides access to the entire 45 000 plus articles of Grove's Dictionary of art 1996 34 vols with constant additions of new material and updates to the text plus extensive image links Color Slide Source and Reference of World Art American Library Color Slide Company,Nahum Tschacbasov,1980 Journal of the Illinois State Archaeological Society Illinois State Archaeological Society,1950
