The ABCs of Classic Hollywood Robert Beverley Ray, 2008 Speaking about the kind of filmmaking now known as Classic Hollywood the most popular and influential cinema ever invented Vincente Minnelli once gave away its secret I feel that a picture that stays with you is made up of a hundred or more hidden things They're things that the audience is not conscious of but that accumulate How would we go about finding those things What method would enable us to retrieve them and by doing so to understand better how Hollywood films got made The ABCs of Classic

Hollywood attempts to answer those questions by looking closely at four movies from the 1930-1945 period when the American Studio System reached the peak of its economic and cultural power: Grand Hotel, The Philadelphia Story, The Maltese Falcon, and Meet Me in St. Louis. To avoid the predictable generalizations that have plagued Film Studies, Ray works with the movies' details treated as initially mysterious but promising clues: e.g., Grand Hotel's coffin and room assignments, The Philadelphia Story's diving board and license plate PA55, The Maltese Falcon's clocks and missing bed, Meet Me in St. Louis's violinist and ribboned cat. By producing at least 26 entries for each of these films, one for every letter of the alphabet, Ray demonstrates that a movie's details contain the record of the work and ideas that produced them: the endless negotiation between commercial efficiency and seductive enchantment. In our unconscious memories we recognize something in the movies, something tantalizing and just out of reach. This book unlocks those memories, making them conscious and explicit so that they will help us understand the most powerful and important storytelling system ever designed. The Hollywood

Book of Breakups James Robert Parish, 2010-12-20 Half of all marriages end in divorce, and then there are the really unhappy ones. Joan Rivers: Do you suppose that the person who first said "Life is stranger than fiction" might have had Hollywood marriages in mind? Why watch a romantic film starring a leading man and a leading lady when their real-life romances are so much more interesting? It seems that a celebrity's latest film can have a considerably longer life span in the theater than his or her marriage. du jour. One would almost think that Tinseltown has come to embrace divorce as an accepted pastime. Some celebrities have seemingly collected spouses over the years, systematically adding notches in their belts of divorces. Cases in point: Zsa Zsa Gabor, nine; Lana Turner, eight; Elizabeth Taylor, nine; and Mickey Rooney, eight. This list appears to make Jennifer Lopez a mere novice with only three marriages, two divorces, and one terminated engagement to date. In The Hollywood Book of Breakups, James Robert Parish looks at scores of hot Hollywood romances that eventually fell apart. From the decade-long union of Tom Cruise and Nicole Kidman to the just-for-show nuptials of Rock Hudson and Phyllis Gates to the four-and-a-half-year marriage of Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston to the other-woman divorce of Debbie Reynolds and Eddie Fisher, Parish covers it all, from the burning embers to the fizzling fires of Hollywood breakups. You couldn't make this stuff up, and James Robert Parish doesn't need to. Hollywood writes its own drama when it comes to scandalous breakups.
