Sol Plaatje's Mhudi

Sabata-mpho Mokae,Brian Willan,2021 Sol Plaatje's Mhudi is the first full length novel in English to have been written by a black South African and is widely regarded as one of South Africa's most important literary works Set in the 1830s it tells the tale of Mhudi and Ra Thaga a romantic story set against a violent backdrop of war between Barolong and Matebele complicated by the intrusions of Boer trekkers with whom the Barolong form an alliance It is notable among other things for the way Plaatje uses the past to explore the roots of the oppression and injustice suffered by his people a century later when the book was written Page 4 of cover

Sol Plaatje's Native Life in South Africa Janet Remington,Brian

Willan,Bhekizizwe Peterson,2016-10-01 Sheds new light on Native Life appearing at a critical historical juncture and reflects on how to read it in South Africa's heightened challenges today First published in 1916 Sol Plaatje's Native Life in South Africa was written by one of the South Africa's most talented early twentieth century black leaders and journalists Plaatje's pioneering book arose out of an early African National Congress campaign to protest against the discriminatory 1913 Natives Land Act Native Life vividly narrates Plaatje's investigative journeying into South Africa's rural heartlands to report on the effects of the Act and his involvement in the deputation to the British imperial government At the same time it tells the bigger story of the assault on black rights and opportunities in the newly consolidated Union of South Africa and the resistance to it Originally published in war time London but about South Africa and its place in the world Native Life travelled far and wide being distributed in the United States under the auspices of prominent African American W E B Du Bois South African editions were to follow only in the late apartheid period and beyond The aim of this multi authored volume is to shed new light on how and why Native Life came into being at a critical historical juncture and to reflect on how it can be read in relation to South Africa's heightened challenges today Crucial areas that come under the spotlight in this collection include land race history mobility belonging war the press law literature language gender politics and the state

The South African Novel in English Kenneth Parker,1978-06-17

A Common Hunger Joan G.

Fairweather,2006 The impact of colonial dispossession and the subsequent social and political ramifications places a unique burden on governments having to establish equitable means of addressing previous injustices This book considers the efforts by both Canada and South Africa to reconcile the damage left by colonial expansion in part looking back with a critical eye but also pointing the way towards a solution that will satisfy the common need for human dignity Rethinking South Africa's Past Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-03-18 This book presents key historical scholarship published in Safundi from 1999 to 2024 tracing South Africa's past through approaches of comparative history transnational history and visual history in addition to addressing the importance of topics like gender labor and class dynamics as well as regional historiographies The first section of the book focuses on comparative history as a founding method for Safundi given the journal's origins in American and South African studies while also recalibrating this approach through a variety of topics cities biographies and practices of violence rather than nation states writ large Drawing upon innovative sources of evidence the second section moves beyond the comparative method to address transnational histories as a new narrative technique for storytelling and analysis Whether issues of education immigration or visiting musicians to South Africa these chapters demonstrate the importance of a post national approach for understanding the past The sections that follow fan out into other subject areas including the uses of visual history gender roles class cultures and environmental history all of which illuminate connections between South African history and other parts of the world This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars students activists and policymakers as well as those readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa's complex history over the past several centuries Worlds in One Country Denis Hirson, 2011 Worlds in one country is a compact inclusive history of writing in South Africa from the nineteenth century to 1994 that crosses boundaries of language and colour including prose poetry and theatre

The American Medical Association on the Case for Teaching Racism

Francis Kwarteng, 2021-04-26

The public lynching of George Floyd re-exposed the rotten underbelly of America and this together with the disproportionate impact of COVID-19 on Black and Brown communities the global Black Lives Matter protests and the racist xenophobic demagoguery of Donald Trump resurrected the old debates about medical racism race relations implicit bias vaccine nationalism vaccine imperialism structural inequality police brutality vaccine hesitancy unethical human experimentation vaccine diplomacy qualified immunity conspiracy theories and social justice

Then in 2020 the American Medical Association formally declared racism a public health crisis defined racism as a social determinant of health and embraced the idea of medical schools teaching medical students about racism

Alas the nursing curriculum is somewhat silent on these questions

The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne

Sandwith,2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimaged in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature

Achebe's Things Fall Apart Ode Ogede,2007-05-16 A Reader s Guide to one of the best known African novels Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart The 'Valiant Englishman' Andrew Manson,2023-04-11 This book describes the career of an English aristocrat Christopher Bethell who arrives in southern Africa in 1878 as the classic remittance man despatched to the colonies to avoid a scandal at home Bethell an intelligence officer and later a border agent is the protagonist who facilitated the acquisition of arms for Montshiwa s Ratshidi Barolong to resist the depredations of freebooters mercenaries based mostly in the Transvaal In his alliance with Kgosi Montshiwa Tawana Bethell identifies with Kgosi Montshiwa s struggle to maintain political independence and economic security The alliance was further cemented by Bethell s marriage to a Morolong woman Tepo Boapile an unusual occurrence in nineteenth century southern Africa Surrounded by aggressive freebooters from across their eastern border with the Transvaal and the ambiguous forces of colonial advancement from the Cape colony and Britain Montshiwa and Bethell form an unlikely but enduring relationship aimed at safeguarding Rolong interests As the Bechuanaland Wars of the early to mid 1880s intensify in brutality Montshiwa and his Chief of Staff Christopher Bethell are forced to desperate measures to defend the Rolong and avoid outright dispossession Bethell s demise is the trigger for firm British imperial intervention the securing of the Road to the North and events that will determine the fate of Africans in south and central Africa The book is a reminder that in the author s words past relations between South Africa s different races were characterised as much by collusion and collaboration as they were by hostility friction and dissent

Starck-Adler: Lewis Nkosi: The Black Psychiatrist ,2023-06-02 This rich volume is dedicated to the astounding South African writer and literary critic Lewis Nkosi 1936 2010 In this book Nkosi s celebrated one act play The Black Psychiatrist is published together with its unpublished sequel Flying Home a play on the satirically fictionalized inauguration of Mandela as

Handbook of Anglophone World Literatures Stefan Helgesson,Birgit Neumann,Gabriele Rippl,2020-09-07

Rethinking Khoe and San Indigeneity, Language and Culture in Southern Africa Julie Grant,Keyan G.

Tomaselli,2022-09-19 The San hunter gatherers and Khoe herders of southern Africa were dispossessed of their land before during and after the European colonial period which started in 1652 They were often enslaved and forbidden from practicing their culture and speaking their languages In South Africa under apartheid after 1948 they were reclassified as Coloured which further undermined Khoe and San culture forcing them to reconfigure and realign their identities and loyalties Southern Africa is no longer under colonial or apartheid rule the San and Khoe however continue in the struggle to maintain the remnants of their languages and cultures and are marginalised by the dominant peoples of the region The San in particular continue to command very extensive research attention from a variety of disciplines from anthropology and linguistics to genetics They are however usually studied as static historical objects but they are not merely peoples of the past as is often assumed they are very much alive in contemporary society with cultural and language needs This book brings together studies from a range of disciplines to examine what it means to be Indigenous Khoe and San in contemporary southern Africa It considers the current constraints on Khoe and San identity language and culture constantly negotiating an indeterminate social positioning where they are treated as the inconvenient indigenous Usually studied as original anthropos but out of their time this book shifts attention from the past to the present and how the San have negotiated language literacy and identity for coping in the period of modernity It reveals that Afrikaans is indeed an African language incubated not only by Cape Malay slaves working in the kitchens of the early Dutch settlers but also by the Khoe and San who interacted with sailors from passing ships plying the West coast of southern Africa from the 14th century The book re examines the idea of literacy its relationship to language and how these shape identity The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies The Pitfalls of Liberal Democracy and Late Nationalism in South Africa M. Muiu,2008-12-08 This book compares African and Afrikaner nationalisms to demonstrate that the transition from apartheid to liberal democracy in South Africa was a neo colonial settlement that left the economy and the military and security sectors under the control of the white minority while increasing wide socioeconomic disparities between rich and poor
