Mi Vida Loca Allison Anders, 1993      In the Company of Women Karen Hollinger, The locus of Jim Huot Vickery's life is a remote cabin in the northern wilderness of Minnesota's Boundary Waters region. More often than not it is winter here, a fierce beautiful season that dominates all living things with its relentless cold grip. This is the inspiration for Winter Sign, the profound story of fifteen years of surviving the seven month long odyssey of winter in the far north. We know parkas, mukluks, mittens, snowshoes, skis and sled dogs. Huot Vickery writes, Snow sparkles gold on cloudless winter mornings. There are shell pink sunsets. Stars glimmer among northern lights. For those of us who know this land, however, beauty is only part of the winter story. There are those long nights, those we rarely speak about, that surely and irrevocably shift the soul. Against this backdrop Huot Vickery writes authoritatively on the ecology of the area and philosophically about winter's probing of the human spirit. He explores the world of nature and the constant struggle for survival, including his own interactions with white-tailed deer and wolves. Huot Vickery circles around paradoxes and themes that invade the land and his life: nature's beauty and bounty pitted against danger and death, the challenge of self-reliance and the depths of isolation, loss and restoration. And always there is the unrelenting winter, filled with wonder and terror. At turns poignant and harrowing, Winter Sign explores the solitude of the dark night of the soul and the sustenance and inspiration winter's wild beauty provides.
