

"MISS CLARE REMEMBERS" brings forth praises . . .

• "This is a delightful story, taking the reader into the little village of Beach Green and Fawcett, to share the life of Della Clare, teacher in the little's country school, her almost half a century . . . The reader meets the town neighbors—quaint, queer, generous, gentle, good and all of them worth knowing, even to that barterer of doom, Mrs. Pringle, the school's widowmaker, who leads the general outlook of the world, 'hopeless' . . . Miss Clare describes of all that has happened during the years she has lived, and all those precious memories she has preserved for us in this choice book, MISS CLARE REMEMBERS."

—BEATRICE PLUMB, Author

• "'Miss Read' is always an enchantment for us, and now I am grateful that Miss Clare remembers in tranquillity her village life of years ago . . . Once again she delights us in her perfection of the tale."

—FRANCES DARLING

• "It is a pleasure that 'Miss Read' can once again let her readers reacquaintance with the beauty and love of her characters."

—EDNA PECK, Boston Public Library

• "There is no reader who moves across her pages and does not leave a heart of her readers with smiling sweetness and light, and as the years close with great depth and sincerity. Reading this book will be for you another triumph of revivifying the reading. 'Miss Read's' characters are created with something of the engineer's skill but they live and have a quality of being that moves on to and beyond the last paragraph of this splendid story."

—DANIEL A. POLING, Author, Editor
