Mibing Link The Image Of Man In Contemporary Photography:

Missing Link Carl Aigner, 2000 Photography more than any other medium has altered the way we see ourselves and changed our perception of art Pictures of people have become part and parcel of our daily life influencing us through advertising and media At the same time the status of the human image in art has been enhanced even though photography has called into question traditional views of art Photography is as it were the missing link between man the image of man and art

Light and Photomedia Jai McKenzie, 2020-09-02 Light and Photomedia proposes that regardless of technological change the history and future of photomedia is essentially connected to light It is a fundamental property of photomedia binding with space and time to form and inform new explicitly light based structures and experiences Jai McKenzie identifies light space time structures throughout the history of photomedia from the early image machines through analogue and digital image machines to the present day She proposes that they will continue to develop in the future and takes us to future image machines of the year 2039 With the use of the theories of Paul Virilio Jean Baudrillard and Vilem Flusser featuring artists including Henri Cartier Bresson Nam June Paik Yves Klein Eadweard Muybridge Martha Rosler Cindy Sherman and Michael Snow as well as their photographic images Light and Photomedia places the reader in a new history and future which although mostly overlooked by the canon of photomedia theory is an essential line of enquiry for contemporary thinking and dialogue in photography

Movements in Art Since 1945: Second Edition (World of Art) Edward Lucie-Smith, 2020-04-14 A classic introduction to art since the end of the Second World War Movements in Art Since 1945 tells the story of art across all forms of media over the past seventy five years Revised and redesigned for the first time since 2001 this standard introduction to visual art in the postwar era examines the movements trends and artists from abstract expressionism to the present day Writing with exceptional clarity and a strong sense of narrative Edward Lucie Smith demystifies the work of dozens of artists and reveals how the art world has interacted with social political and environmental concerns This book includes detailed coverage of major developments within the artistic community such as pop art conceptual and performance work neo expressionism and minimalist art across the globe including Asia Africa and Latin America A new chapter on art since 2000 includes discussions of work by Banksy and Ai Weiwei as well as recent trends in art from Russia and Eastern Europe Featuring nearly 300 images of key artworks that range from graffiti from 1980s New York to contemporary painting from China this updated edition of Movements in Art Since 1945 is as global in its reach as art has become in the twenty first century
