Hammer and beyond Peter Hutchings, 2021-09-21 Peter Hutchings's Hammer and beyond remains a landmark work in British film criticism This new illustrated edition brings the book back into print for the first time in two decades Featuring Hutchings's socially charged analyses of genre classics from Dead of Night 1945 and The Curse of Frankenstein 1957 to The Sorcerers 1967 and beyond it also includes several of Hutchings's later essays on British horror as well as a new critical introduction penned by film historian Johnny Walker and an afterword by Russ Hunter Hammer and beyond deserves a spot on the bookshelf of anyone with a serious interest in the development of Britain's contribution to the horror genre

Censoring the 1970s Sian Barber, 2011-09-22 This book explores the work of the British Board of Film Censors in the 1970s Throughout the decade this unelected organisation set standards of acceptability and determined what could and what could not be shown on British cinema screens Controversial texts like A Clockwork Orange 1971 Straw Dogs 1971 The Devils 1971 and Life of Brian 1979 have been used to draw attention to the way in which the BBFC operated in the 1970s While it is true to say that these films encountered major classification problems what of the hundreds of other films being classified at the same time Did all films struggle with the British censors in this period and can these famous examples be fitted into broader patterns of censorship policy and practice In studying over 250 film files from the BBFC archive this work reveals how 1970s films such as Vampire Circus 1971 Confessions of a Window Cleaner 1974 and Carry on Emmannuelle 1978 also ran into trouble with the film censor This work explores the complex process of negotiation and compromise which affected all film submissions in the 1970s and the way in which the BBFC actively and often sympathetically negotiated with film directors producers and distributors to assign the correct category to each film The lack of any defined formal censorship policy in this period allowed the BBFC to work alongside the film industry and push cultural social and artistic boundaries however it also left the Board open to accusations of favouritism subjectivity and personal bias This work is not simply a study of controversial films and contentious issues but rather engages with wider issues of changing permission legal struggles the influence of the media and the legislative and governmental controls which both helped and hindered the BBFC in this important post war decade The focus on historical and archival research offers a great deal to

Their Rock Is Not Like Our Rock Daniel Strange, 2015-02-03 The reality of the West s post Christendom multiethnic multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians face questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is alive and well then so too is society s sacralization Hence a theology of religions is arguably the most significant concern confronting Christian mission and apologetics in the twenty first century There has been little evangelical theology offering a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis not only of the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of other issues pertaining to Christian apologetics and contextualization amid religious pluralism In Their Rock is Not Like Our Rock lecturer and vice principal of Oak Hill College in London Daniel Strange explores these issues and offers the beginning of a theology of other religions Witchfinder General Ian Cooper, 2011-12-06 Witchfinder General 1968 known as The Conqueror Worm in America was directed by Michael Reeves and occupies a unique place in British cinema Equally praised
