Once Upon A Time In Hollywood:

Once Upon a Time in Hollywood Quentin Tarantino, 2021-06-29 Quentin Tarantino's long awaited first work of fiction at once hilarious delicious and brutal is the always surprising sometimes shocking novelization of his Academy Award winning film RICK DALTON Once he had his own TV series but now Rick's a washed up villain of the week drowning his sorrows in whiskey sours Will a phone call from Rome save his fate or seal it CLIFF BOOTH Rick's stunt double and the most infamous man on any movie set because he's the only one there who might have got away with murder SHARON TATE She left Texas to chase a movie star dream and found it Sharon's salad days are now spent on Cielo Drive high in the Hollywood Hills CHARLES MANSON The ex-con's got a bunch of zonked out hippies thinking he's their spiritual leader but he'd trade it all to be a rock n roll star

Unhomed Pamela Robertson Wojcik, 2024-04-09 In this rich cultural history Pamela Robertson Wojcik examines America's ambivalent and shifting attitude toward homelessness She considers film cycles from five distinct historical moments that show characters who are unhomed and placeless mobile rather than fixed characters who fail resist or opt out of the mandate for a home of one's own From the tramp films of the silent era to the 2021 Oscar winning Nomadland Wojcik reveals a tension in the American imaginary between viewing homelessness as deviant and threatening or emblematic of freedom and independence Blending social history with insights drawn from a complex array of films both canonical and fringe Wojcik effectively unhomes dominant narratives that cast aspirations for success and social mobility as the focus of American cinema reminding us that genres of precarity have been central to American cinema and the American story all along The Routledge Companion to American Film History Pamela Robertson Wojcik, Paula J.

Massood, 2025-02-12 Presenting new and diverse scholarship this collection brings together original essays that explore American film history from a fresh perspective Comprising an introduction and 34 chapters written by leading scholars from around the globe and edited by Pamela Robertson Wojcik and Paula J Massood this collection offers discussions of the American film industry from previously unexplored vantage points Rather than follow a chronological format as with most film histories this Companion offers a multiplicity of approaches to historiography and is arranged according to often underdeveloped or overlooked areas in American film including topics such as alternate archives hidden labor histories of style racialized technologies cinema's material cultures spectators and fans transnational film production intermedial histories history in and about films and the historical afterlives of cinema An exciting collection for serious film studies students and scholars interested in new perspectives and fresh approaches to thinking about and doing American film history
