

Of Man's first disobedience, and the fruit
Of that forbidden tree whose mortal taste
Brought death into the World, and all our woe,
With loss of Eden, till one greater Man
Restore us, and regain the blissful seat,
Sing, Heavenly Muse, that, on the secret top
Of Oreb, or of Sinai, didst inspire
That shepherd who first taught the chosen seed
In the beginning how the heavens and earth
Rose out of Chaos: or, if Sion hill
Delight thee more, and Siloa's brook that flowed Fast by the oracle of God, I thence Invoke thy aid to my adventurous song,
That with no middle flight intends to soar
Above the Aonian mount, while it pursues
Things unattempted yet in prose or rhyme.

Radi Os:

Radi Os Ronald Johnson, 2005-04-30 First published in 1977 Ronald Johnson's RADI OS revises the first four books of Paradise Lost by excising words discovering a modern and visionary poem within the seventeenth century text As the author explains To etch is to cut away and each page as in Blake's concept of a book is a single picture With God and Satan crossed out RADI OS reduces Milton's Baroque poem to elemental forces In this retelling of the Fall song precipitates from chaos sight from fire in the shape as of above the rose through rose rising the radiant sun Contracubierta Combined Subject and Author Indexes to Radiobiology Bibliographies U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. Division of Technical Information, 1967 Radios Danny Snelson, 2016-10-20 Poetry RADIOS uses every word and punctuation mark in Ronald Johnson's RADI OS 1977 in the endeavor to recompose John Milton's Paradise Lost 1674 Wherever he composed the holes I filled them in Nothing is erased everything is lost Danny Snelson Ronald Johnson's Modernist Collage Poetry R. Hair, 2010-12-20 Using a critical examination of the collage poetics of Ronald Johnson this book sets out to understand Johnson's poetry in the context of the New American collage tradition stretching from Ezra Pound to Louis Zukofsky and beyond Additionally the book assesses Johnson's work in relation to wider questions concerning literary chronologies especially the discontinuities commonly seen to exist between nineteenth century Romantic and twentieth century modernist literary forms This Is Not a Copy Kaja Marczewska, 2018-02-22 In This Is Not a Copy Kaja Marczewska identifies a characteristic copy paste tendency in contemporary culture a shift in attitude that allows reproduction and plagiarizing to become a norm in cultural production This inclination can be observed in literature and non literary forms of writing at an unprecedented level as experiments with text redefine the nature of creativity Responding to these transformations Marczewska argues that we must radically rethink our conceptions of artistic practice and proposes a move away from the familiar categories of copying and originality creativity and plagiarism in favour of the notion of iteration Developing the new concept of the Iterative Turn This Is Not a Copy identifies and theorizes the turn toward ubiquitous iteration as a condition of text based creative practices as they emerge in response to contemporary technologies Conceiving of writing as iterative invites us to address a set of new critical questions about contemporary culture Combining discussion of literature experimental and electronic writing mainstream and independent publishing with debates in 20th and 21st century art contemporary media culture transforming technologies and copyright laws This Is Not a Copy offers a timely and urgently needed argument introducing a unique new perspective on practices that permeate our contemporary culture Emergent Poetics Travis W. Matteson, 2024-11-12 This book proposes the term emergent poetics to synthesize two divergent strands in contemporary literary media theory the media archaeology of material inscriptions and the systems view of media ecology which considers media as complex nodes of exchange Emergent poetics emphasizes the speculative non prosthetic quality of media the anthrodecentric perspective that media do not simply extend human senses but instead consist of properties that exceed human apprehension This study builds on Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick s theory of reparative reading contemporary media theory and Bruno Latour s Actor Network Theory which are united in their skepticism regarding the paranoid unveiling gesture of institutional critique their emphasis on methodology rather than theoretical ideology and their insistence on assembling rather than deconstructing In response to these three trends this project begins by attending to what Jerome McGann calls the bibliographic code material forms while simultaneously expanding this medium specific perspective by situating written works within their broader media ecosystems tracing interactions among media humans and nonhumans

The Unsignificant Srikanth Reddy,2024-09-17 The Unsignificant Three Talks on Poetry and Pictures is a selection of lectures that poet and Griffin Award finalist Srikanth Reddy presented for the Bagley Wright Lecture Series in 2015 True to its title The Unsignificant is concerned with what it s not about not the logical proofs of philosophy but the affective flux of poetry The lectures approach poetry from Homer to Gertrude Stein to Ronald Johnson obliquely refracted through images such as Brueghel s Landscape with Fall of Icarus Hermann Rorschach s inkblots or Galileo s drawings of the moon Ranging from pictorial backgrounds in visual art to portraiture and similes to the poetics of wonder The Unsignificant embarks on an unsystematic errant and eccentric tour of Western poetry and poetics from the ancient world to our continuous present

Metaphysical Shadows Sean H. McDowell,2022-03-01 Metaphysical Shadows The Persistence of Donne Herbert Vaughan and Marvell in Contemporary Poetry examines the ways in which the poetry of John Donne George Herbert Henry Vaughan and Andrew Marvell continues to speak to working poets today Modern Anglophone poets from T S Eliot and Archibald MacLeish in the 1920s and 1930s to Seamus Heaney Maureen Boyle Alfred Corn Anne Cluysenaar Kimberly Johnson and Jericho Brown in the twenty first century have found in the work of John Donne George Herbert Henry Vaughan and Andrew Marvell a strikingly modern intellectualism an emotional intensity and a verbal richness that have inspired their own poems Traces of this inspiration appear in echoes allusions direct responses and similarities in approach and method as poets create new work in their own distinct voices Such contemporary engagements furnish us with cues for how literary studies might approach the literature of the past without sacrificing it in the name of critique They also demonstrate the continuing relevance of seventeenth century English metaphysical poetry in the twenty first century The poems of Donne Herbert Vaughan and Marvell still have the power to cast shadows Signal ,1988 Imagining Language Jed Rasula,Steve McCaffery,2001 When works such as Joyce s Finnegans Wake and Stein s Tender Buttons were first introduced they went so far beyond prevailing linguistic standards that they were widely considered unreadable if not scandalous Jed Rasula and Steve McCaffery take these and other examples of twentieth century avant garde writing as the starting point for a collection of writings that demonstrates a continuum of creative conjecture on language from antiquity to the present The anthology which spans three millennia generally bypasses chronology in order to illuminate unexpected congruities between seemingly discordant materials Together the writings celebrate the scope and prodigality of linguistic speculation in the West going back to the pre Socratics The Darkness of the Present Steve McCaffery, 2012-11-19 The Darkness of the Present includes essays that collectively investigate the roles of anomaly and anachronism as they work to unsettle commonplace notions of the contemporary in the field of poetics In the eleven essays of The Darkness of the Present poet and critic Steve McCaffery argues that by approaching the past and the present as unified entities the contemporary is made historical at the same time as the historical is made contemporary McCaffery's writings work against the urge to classify works by placing them in standard literary periods or disciplinary partitions Instead McCaffery offers a variety of insights into unusual and ingenious affiliations between poetic works that may have previously seemed distinctive He questions the usual associations of originality and precedence In the process he repositions many texts within genealogies separate from the ones to which they are traditionally assigned The chapters in The Darkness of the Present might seem to present an eclectic fa ade and can certainly be read independently They are linked however by a common preoccupation reflected in the title of the book the anomaly and the anachronism and the way their empirical emergence works to unsettle a steady notion of the contemporary or new Studies in Intelligence, 2010 Atlas and epitome of traumatic fractures and dislocations Heinrich Helferich, 1902 The Army Communicator, 1995 Radio After the Golden Age Jim Cox, 2013-09-30 What became of radio after its Golden Age ended about 1960 Not long ago Arbitron found that almost 93 percent of Americans age 12 and older are regular radio listeners a higher percentage than those turning to television magazines newspapers or the Internet But the sounds they hear now barely resemble those of radio's heyday when it had little competition as a mass entertainment and information source Much has transpired in the past fifty plus years a proliferation of disc jockeys narrowcasting the FM band satellites automation talk ethnicity media empires Internet streaming and gadgets galore Deregulation payola HD radio pirate radio the fall of transcontinental networks the rise of local stations conglomerate ownership and radio's future landscape are examined in detail Radio has lost a bit of influence yet it continues to inspire stunning innovations Labor and Community Gilbert G. Gonzalez, 1994 The emergence maturity and decline of the southern California citrus industry is seen here through the network of citrus worker villages that dotted part of the state's landscape from 1910 to 1960 Labor and Community shows how Mexican immigrants shaped a partially independent existence within a fiercely hierarchical framework of economic and political relationships Gonz lez relies on a variety of published sources and interviews with longtime residents to detail the education of village children the Americanization of village adults unionization and strikes and the decline of the citrus picker village and rise of the urban barrio His insightful study of the rural dimensions of Mexican American life prior to World War II adds balance to a long standing urban bias in Chicano historiography Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States.
