Radical Media Rebellious Communication And Social Movements:

Radical Media John D. H. Downing, 2000-08-18 This is an entirely new edition of the author's 1984 study originally published by South End Press of radical media and movements. The first and second sections are original to this new edition. The first section explores social and cultural theory in order to argue that radical media should be a central part of our understanding of media in history. The second section weaves an historical and international tapestry of radical media to illustrate their centrality and diversity from dance and graffiti to video and the internet and from satirical prints and street theatre to culture jamming, subversive song performance art and underground radio. The section also includes consideration of ultra rightist media as a key contrast case. The book's third section provides detailed case studies of the anti fascist media explosion of 1974-75 in Portugal, Italy's long running radical media radio and access video in the USA and illegal media in the dissolution of the former Soviet bloc dictatorships.

Radical Media: Rebellious Communication and Social Movements John Derek Hall Downing, 2001 Radical Media analyses radical media and movements worldwide from dance and graffiti to video and the Internet and from satirical prints and street theatre to culture jamming, subversive song performance art and underground radio.

Social Movements Savyasaachi, Ravi Kumar, 2017-09-19 This volume attempts to show the emerging contours of transformative action in social movements across South Asia. It argues that these contours have been shaped by contestations over questions of equity, justice and well being on the one hand and the nature and scope of new and classical social movements on the other. This is manifest in diverse modes through people's struggles, protest and dissent. The authors examine a variety of themes that have determined the course of the politics of transformative struggles. They critique neoliberalism, primitive accumulation, money class inequalities as well as aspects of capital labour conflict. They highlight the contributions of movements by women, dalit and marginalized communities, peace movements and environmental and agrarian struggles. The volume also appraises the role of internet in grassroots mobilizations and that of civil society networks in the making of participatory democracy. It further argues that the predicaments of cultural, ethnic, national, regional and linguistic identities are not divorced from capital labour conflicts. The book will serve as essential reading for students and scholars of sociology, social movements, politics, gender and feminist studies, labour studies and the informed general reader.
