flew with the Royal Air Force and for thirty one of those years he specialized as an air defense fighter pilot. Such was his love of fast fighter aircraft that in order to stay flying he transferred to Specialist Aircrew terms of service relinquishing any chance of further promotion above his rank of squadron leader. During those years Clive flew Lightnings, Hawks and Tornado F 3s but perhaps more intriguingly for eleven years he flew Hurricanes and Spitfires with the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight (BBMF), the RAF's if not the world's most famous warbird display team which he ultimately led and commanded. Many readers will have watched him perhaps unknowingly as he flew these iconic aircraft often alongside the Lancaster at air shows and large scale commemorations around the UK and Europe. During the Cold War Clive flew the BAC Lightning from Gutersloh in Germany and in the UK becoming an expert in the art of air combat in the process. Then for sixteen years he flew the Tornado F 3 as the RAF moved into expeditionary operations. Packed with humorous and often hair raising anecdotes but also revealing the shock and sorrow he felt at the deaths of friends and colleagues, this book is a highly detailed account of life as a fighter pilot in the RAF in the last three decades of the twentieth century and into the twenty first. Clive is open about the fears he sometimes felt in this dangerous world and how he allayed them to continue flying for more than four decades. This book is illustrated with wonderful photographs from his time on the front line as well as with the BBMF, many of which have never been published before. If you have ever wondered what it is like to fly supersonic jet fighters like the Lightning and the Tornado F 3 or iconic warbirds such as the Hurricane and Spitfire, Clive Rowley brings you into those cockpits and shares his experiences.

Life as a Fighter Pilot Brian Williams, 2006. What was it like to be a fighter pilot during wartime? This title examines what these pilots went through in the air and on the ground. Their training, types of aircraft and the role they played in the battles are all examined in great detail.

Time Flies David Hamilton, 2017-11-09. An insight into the daily exploits of a fighter pilot during the Cold War and beyond, both from the cockpit and in command. Reflections on high level staff meetings including briefing the Secretary of State for Defence, Michael Heseltine, during the formative years of the Eurofighter project. Details of commanding a Tornado F3 squadron during Gulf War One. Memoirs of flying with the Red Arrows including the 1993 tour of the USA. Profusely illustrated with high quality photographs.

Time Flies: Reflections of a Fighter Pilot is a detailed insight into the exploits of a RAF pilot from the cockpit and in command, in the air, on land and at sea. Covering interceptions of Soviet bombers off Iceland to defending Saudi Arabia in Gulf War One, this gripping biography follows his thirty year career operating Lightnings, defending the UK F 4 Phantoms from HMS Ark Royal and defending the Inner German Border (IGB) as well as commanding a Tornado F3 squadron including a deployment to Saudi Arabia in Gulf War One. The author formulated the operational requirements for the Eurofighter Typhoon, flew with the Red Arrows, served as the deputy station commander at RAF Leuchars and led the Tornado F3 four ship flypast over Edinburgh Castle as the Stone of Destiny was returned to Scotland on 30 November 1996. A serious study for the aviation enthusiast and military historian, this work is also sumptuously illustrated with rich and candid photographs to inspire modellers.
