The purpose of this reference is to provide a quick and easy way for curriculum directors, technology coordinators, librarians, teachers, school administrators, students, and parents to find the highest rated materials available. The book uses a two-column format. The left column contains information such as subject area and grade levels, served cost, and hardware requirements. The right column holds an in-depth description of the program as well as helpful tips from evaluators. Programs that cater to special needs students are highlighted in the right column. An Interdisciplinary Index is provided that allows users to locate programs appropriate for a specified subject area or across the curriculum. A software publisher directory and title index are also provided. This year's edition features 93 programs new to Only the Best as well as 16 Classics. New to the 1999/2000 edition is the listing of Multiple Intelligences as a feature in each of the program descriptions as well as the introduction of a Multidisciplinary category. The body of the reference consists of full-length program descriptions listed alphabetically by subject. A section on the evaluation process lists the highest rated programs for 1999/2000 and Only the Best Classics are included. AEF American Reference Books Annual Bohdan S.
