

The background of the book cover is a colorful, abstract illustration. It features a dark brown, textured shape at the bottom that resembles a person's head or hair. Above this, there are large, light-colored circular shapes with brown outlines, possibly representing eyes or glasses. The top of the cover is filled with vibrant, irregular shapes in shades of red, blue, yellow, and green, creating a lively, cloud-like or floral pattern.

Prater, 1986 Rainer Maria Rilke 1875-1926 is widely regarded as the greatest lyric poet of this century His major achievements the New poems the Sonnets to Orpheus and the incomparable Duino Elegies had a powerful impact on European literature and have been the subject of intense scrutiny and increasing acclaim since the poet's death Only in recent years however with the emergence of key documentary material has it become possible to present the full story of Rilke's life In A Ringing Glass Donald Prater's aim is not to add another stone to the mounting edifice of critical interpretation but to provide a portrait of the man himself and to show the background in which Rilke's extraordinary vision developed And it is an extraordinary background Rilke's nomadic existence led him from his birthplace in Prague through Germany Russian Spain Italy France and finally Switzerland He visited Tolstoy at Yasnaya Polyana acted for a time as secretary to Rodin and was friend of Romain Rolland Leonid Pasternak and Walter Rathenau He was the protégé of Princess Marie von Thurn und Taxis and the lover Lou Andreas Salome and Baladine Klossowska of whose son the painter Balthus he was an early patron Financially and emotionally Rilke needed these associations yet he dedicated himself fully to his art and remained single minded in his search for the solitude it required In his correspondence from which Prater draws extensively Rilke reveals the tragic conflict between his needs as a man and his goals as a poet This above all he wrote a younger colleague ask yourself must I write Delve into yourself for a deep answer And if this should be affirmative then build your life according to this necessity With this comprehensive biography readers can themselves delve deeply into the life Rilke built a life as courageous and rare as the poetry it left behind About the Author Donald Prater is the author of European of Yesterday a biography of Stefan Zweig and his edition of the Rilke Zweig

PhotoGraphic Encounters William F. Garrett-Petts,Donald Lawrence,Kamloops Art Gallery,2000-10 Literacy is broadly understood to refer to the ability to read and write But the term is heavily value laden and is often used to elevate print at the expense of other forms of communication In PhotoGraphic Encounters the authors challenge this reductive notion of literacy and propose instead an integrated span of literacies reaching across disciplinary boundaries to discover a text that draws upon both the visual and the verbal PhotoGraphic Encounters discusses Canadian writers like Margaret Atwood George Bowering Robert Kroetsch and Daphne Marlatt and Canadian artists like Fred Douglas Ernie Kroeger Brenda Pelkey and Michael Snow then looks at the cross fertilization of visual and verbal processes in their works The authors present a new narrative practice one that fully engages lived experience The vernacular they argue is vital to our participation as readers and viewers of high art Making the connection between the vernacular and high culture creates an enabling moment in artistic production and reception and in teaching learning and talking about art and literature PhotoGraphic Encounters offers a compelling perspective on questions of literacy in a postmodern culture Artists writers scholars and critics alike will want this volume in their libraries Includes more than 120 B W photographs 20 colour plates index bibliography
