Social Networks, Border Regions and Local-Global Relations Angela Pilch Ortega, Barbara Schröttner, 2012 Globalization has encouraged worldwide mobility intensified migration and supported growing interconnectedness through new technologies it has therefore substantially contributed to the development of so called transnational spaces This volume focuses on transnational spaces which should not be understood as locations on a map or as sealed containers but instead as relational social areas which are composed of various relationships Transnationalization increases liberation and or emancipation from place because social relations overcome physical space and local regional and national boundaries As a consequence a reconfiguration of social cultural
