working in the areas of regional studies economics and policy studies Protected Areas and Regional Development in Europe Ingo Mose, 2016-04-15 While originally created as reserves for beautiful landscapes and endangered species protected areas in Europe were subsequently used as a means to preserve whole ecosystems with restrictions on human activities and impacts More recently protected areas are also being considered as instruments for regional development particularly in marginal regions facing severe economic and socio cultural problems Contrary to previous conservation focused policies new approaches aim to blend conservation and development functions making protected areas real living landscapes and integrating activities such as agriculture forestry handicrafts tourism and education with the conservation and sustainability aspects The past decade has seen a marked increase in these innovative and dynamic types of protected areas However the policies of individual European countries are very varied This volume provides a comprehensive overview of the relationship between protected areas and regional development policies both in theory and practice Illustrated with a wide range of case studies from across Europe it compares the different concepts strategies and instruments being used In conclusion it suggests the most innovative and successful ways to use protected areas for regeneration and sustainable regional development Mobilizing Regions, Mobilizing Europe Sebastian M. Buettner, 2013-10-23 Regional development strategies are becoming more similar all around Europe even though regional differences are more pronounced than ever and many European regions have become more autonomous actors This thesis of a peculiar standardized diversification of sub national space in the modern European Union is the point of departure of this book Based upon the analytical premises of Stanford School Sociological Institutionalism Sebastian M B ttner studies regional mobilization in contemporary Europe from a new and innovative perspective He highlights the importance of scientific expertise and global scientific models in contemporary regional development practice and exemplifies their significance with the example of region building in Poland in the course of EU integration This new wave of regional mobilization is not just conceived as an effect of local national or European politics but as an expression of a larger conceptual shift in governing society and space This well researched and clearly argued book not only provides fresh insights into region building and regionalization in contemporary European space but also contributes to the new sociology of Europeanization It will be an illuminating read for scholars and students in Sociology European and EU studies International Relations Cultural Studies Geography Regional Science Polish Studies and related subject areas Regional Integration in the Asia Pacific Issues and Prospects OECD, The Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre at the University of South Australia, 2005-04-28 This report published by the OECD s International Futures Programme in co operation with the Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre in Australia aims to stimulate informed debate about the main integration issues facing the Asia Pacific region in the The Routledge Handbook to Regional Development in Central and Eastern Europe Gábor Lux, Gyula Horváth, 2017-07-06 Twenty five years into transformation Central and Eastern European regions have undergone substantial socio economic restructuring integrating into European and global
