Regnum Caelorum

Peter Godman

Regnum Caelorum:

Regnum Caelorum Charles Evan Hill, 1992 Did the early Christians believe that the righteous went to heaven at death or did they believe a subterranean refreshment awaited the saints Did most Christians look for a millennium on earth a thousand year glorious reign of Christ to ensue upon his second coming and to precede the last judgement or did they cling to the hope that Christ would judge the world and distribute eternal rewards immediately upon his return By demonstrating the links between global and individual notions of eschatology in the period from the New Testament to Dionysius of Alexandria mid third century AD Dr Hill reveals two competing patterns of teaching which vied for acceptance in the fledgling church He challenges many long held assumptions about the eschatology of the period and in doing so brings greater definition to our picture of the beliefs and longings of the early Church , "The" Monsee Fragments George Allison Hench, 1891 The Book of Modern British Verse William Stanley Braithwaite, 1919 The Gospel according to St. Matthew John Wordsworth, 1883 The Transactions of the Royal Irish Academy, 1886 Reading Church Latin Robert Schoenstene, 2017-03-28 The study of Latin can be a difficult for some students new to theological research This book will be an essential tool for acquiring a basic reading knowledge of ecclesiastical Latin The texts they translate will be common texts they will encounter as theology students and as priests or deacons common prayers liturgical biblical patristic and medieval theological texts as well as some hymn texts For most students the lessons in this book will be their only exposure to Latin For those who may wish to learn more it will provide a solid foundation for further study Rome has indicated that seminarians of the Roman rite should have at least some familiarity with Latin and the Latin theological tradition Graduate students in theology and scripture also may be required to have a reading knowledge of a classical language Reading Church Latin can be used either as a class text or a resource for independent study In each lesson the grammar and syntax encountered in the Latin reading are explained The exercises provide a way to reinforce the learned grammar syntax and vocabulary of each lesson Students will be able to deal competently with or at least understand the basic meaning of untranslated Latin readings and have the ability to compare a text that they translate to its original Reading Church Latin also contains a Glossary an Answer Key to the exercises and a useful Morphology Apocalyptic Thought in Early Christianity (Holy Cross Studies in Patristic Theology and History) Robert Daly, S.J., 2009-06-01 This volume explores how early Christian understandings of apocalyptic writings and teachings are reflected in the theology social practices and institutions of the early church It enables pastors and serious students of the Bible particularly those interested in patristics and church history to read the book of Revelation and related writings through ancient Christian eyes This is the second volume in Holy Cross Studies in Patristic Theology and History a partnership between Baker Academic and the Stephen and Catherine Pappas Patristic Institute of Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology in Brookline Massachusetts The series is a deliberate outreach by the Orthodox community to Protestant and Catholic seminarians pastors and theologians In these multiauthor books contributors from all traditions focus on the patristic especially Greek patristic heritage Immanence Evelyn Underhill,1914 The Saint as Censor Peter Godman,2024-02-26 The opening of the archives of the Roman Inquisition and of the Index of Prohibited Books in January 1998 enables us to think afresh about the history of two organisations more notorious than understood Both have been considered almost exclusively from the perspective of their victims such as Galileo Galilei This book uses hitherto secret sources of the Inquisition and Index to reconstruct the history of Roman censorship in its first formative years from the standpoint of Galileo s judge Robert Bellarmine 1542 1621 was a censor for the Index and a consultor to the Holy Office before becoming cardinal inquisitor and three centuries after his death a saint and Doctor of the Church His career provides a paradigm of how an intellectual could make his way to the top in Counter Reformation Rome Censored by Pope Sixtus V Bellarmine responded by supressing the pontiff s version of the Vulgate and by repressing the Sistine Index of Prohibited Books A new interpretation including a revaluation of Galileo s first trial of Roman censorship is offered in this book Based on unpublished sources from the archives which it edits and interprets for the first time The Saint as Censor will alter our understanding of the Roman Inquisition and the Index
