Franklin and Bache Jeffery Alan Smith, 1990

Regarded by Thomas Jefferson as the greatest man of the age Benjamin Franklin was a principal force in developing the egalitarian philosophy that Jefferson came to represent Franklin impressed his ideals on his grandson Benjamin Franklin Bache who became Jefferson's most militant journalistic ally in the fierce ideological confrontations of the 1790s In this dual biography Smith examines the lives and careers of these two influential figures Revolutionary Mothers Carol Berkin, 2007-12-18 A groundbreaking history of the American Revolution that vividly recounts Colonial women's struggles for independence for their nation and sometimes for themselves Her lively book reclaims a vital part of our political legacy Los Angeles Times Book Review The American Revolution was a home front war that brought scarcity bloodshed and danger into the life of every American In this book Carol Berkin shows us how women played a vital role throughout the conflict The women of the Revolution were most active at home organizing boycotts of British goods raising funds for the fledgling nation and managing the family business while struggling to maintain a modicum of normalcy as husbands brothers and fathers died Yet Berkin also reveals that it was not just the men who fought on the front lines as in the story of Margaret Corbin who was crippled for life when she took her husband's place beside a cannon at Fort Monmouth This incisive and comprehensive history illuminates a fascinating and unknown side of the struggle for American independence
