Relational Spaces Daughterhood Motherhood And Sisterhood In Dacia Maraini's Writings And Films:

Relational Spaces Virginia A. Picchietti, 2002 Undertaken from the 1960s to the present Martini's textual investigation of the relationship between her heroines and these discourses has led to the analysis of the primary site of women's development the family BOOK JACKET Dacia Maraini's Narratives of Survival Tommasina Gabriele, 2015-12-03 Dacia Maraini's Narratives of Survival Re-Constructed focuses on Dacia Maraini's narrative from about 1984 to 2004 and makes substantive use of her interviews and essays While acknowledging the importance and ongoing validity of feminist scholarship of Maraini's work this book seeks to take scholarship on Maraini beyond feminist readings by identifying a critical framework that cuts across gender and genre and thereby invites alternative readings Using a method of close textual analysis the author includes studies of men children animals and imaginary characters in Maraini's narrative analyzes language character motifs and symbols and considers some of Maraini's work in light of declining postmodern and emerging posthuman critical social theory This critical framework identifies the paradigm of reconstruction as narrative center both strategy and theme of many of Maraini's works from this twenty year period and beyond Reconstruction here signifies the strategies by which Maraini's deep investment in survival which has its roots in the life threatening conditions she experienced as a small child in a WWII Japanese concentration camp is enacted in a narrative re building and re constructing of personal memory of various personal social and political histories of motherhood and maternal discourses of crime stories of postmodern fragmentation and even of the process of erasure itself Maraini's narrative is deeply attentive to the mechanisms that threaten survival of the body and not just the woman's body psychological and aesthetic survival the survival in the Italian canon of a woman author's work memory and legacy after her death the survival of a drug addicted and self destructive younger generation and by extension collective and ecological survival Never marked by nihilism or despair Maraini's narratives offer the ethos of reconstruction as a variation on the begin again that marks the end of many of her novels and as we can see in Colomba her own aesthetic process of renewal and regeneration This book focuses primarily on Il treno per Helsinki 1984 Isolina 1985 some of her short stories for children La nave per Kobe Diari giapponesi di mia madre 2001 Buio Strega Literary Prize 1999 and Colomba 2004 A Companion to Italian Cinema Frank Burke, 2017-04-13 Written by leading figures in the field A Companion to Italian Cinema re maps Italian cinema studies employing new perspectives on traditional issues and fresh theoretical approaches to the exciting history and field of Italian cinema Offers new approaches to Italian cinema whose importance in the post war period was unrivalled Presents a theory based approach to historical and archival material Includes work by both established and more recent scholars with new takes on traditional critical issues and new theoretical approaches to the exciting history and field of Italian cinema Covers recent issues such as feminism stardom queer cinema immigration and postcolonialism self reflexivity and postmodernism popular genre cinema and digitalization A comprehensive collection of essays addressing the prominent films directors and cinematic forms of Italian cinema which will become a standard resource for academic and non academic purposes alike The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 Writing and Performing Female Identity in Italian Culture Virginia Picchiotti, Laura A. Salsini, 2017-01-28 This volume investigates the ways in which Italian women writers filmmakers and performers have represented female identity across genres from the immediate post World War II period to the turn of the twenty first century Considering genres such as prose poetry drama and film these essays examine the vision of female agency and self actualization arising from women artists critique of female identity This dual approach reveals unique interpretations of womanhood in Italy spanning more than fifty years while also providing a deep investigation of the manipulation of canvases historically centered on the male subject With its unique coupling of generic and thematic concerns the volume contributes to the ever expanding female artistic legacy and to our understanding of postwar Italian women s evolving relationship to the narration of history gender roles and these artists use and revision of generic convention to communicate their vision Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone, Paolo Puppa, 2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children s literature food and vernacular literatures Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature Grazia Deledda's Painterly Aesthetic Angela Guiso, Virginia A. Picchiotti, 2025-03-15 Central to Grazia Deledda s narrative worlds are the relationships between her characters and the vast landscapes in which they move and act The writer translates and represents her characters her characters emotions and her natural and urban landscapes with a vocabulary that is often related to the visual arts However although her descriptions contain the gradations of Modernist painting beginning with Impressionism no book length study and with diverse perspectives has thus far investigated Deledda s relationship with the visual arts and the resulting painterly aesthetic of her multicolored narratives In this sense Grazia Deledda s Painterly Aesthetic provides an articulated literary panorama of Deledda s novels and short stories through a discourse that is situated between literature and pictorial art Inspired by these two cardinal points the analyses are undertaken by contributors who have a profound awareness of an epochal change and work in different disciplines One year from the centenary of her receipt of the Nobel Prize the contributors investigate the connections consonances and differences between Grazia Deledda's oeuvre and other works inside this panorama to verify a possible unity of purpose At the same time they seek to ascertain whether these connections can corroborate and exalt the choices that the Sardinian writer made to free herself from the constraints of a hostile environment

Food and Emotions in Italian Women's Writing Patrizia Sambuco, 2024-11-30 Food and Emotions in Italian Women's Writing discusses the relevance of food imagery in the writing of Italian women over a period of one hundred years from the 1920s to the present day while offering new ways to narrate women's history and creativity In this groundbreaking work Patrizia Sambuco shows how food imagery in different historical periods challenge established political discourses by conveying unexpressed alternative or transgressive emotions Through literary analysis archival research and philosophical approaches to the senses emotions and food the book considers a variety of authors from the celebrated to the hardly known Sambuco argues that in different ways throughout the decades the conceptual domain of food has helped express forms of selfhood that push the boundaries of womanhood and interact with cultural and political panoramas at national and international levels Building an alternative history of Italian women and their creativity Sambuco shows how the interplay of the senses and emotions becomes a profitable way to illuminate overlooked aspects of women's subjectivity Food and Emotions in Italian Women's Writing ultimately reassesses women's writing giving value to the marginality of women's bodies and positions through the conceptual domain of food

The Cambridge Companion to the Italian Novel Peter Bondanella, Andrea Ciccarelli, 2003-07-31 The Cambridge Companion to the Italian Novel provides a broad ranging introduction to the major trends in the development of the Italian novel from its early modern origin to the contemporary era Contributions cover a wide range of topics including the theory of the novel in Italy the historical novel realism modernism postmodernism neorealism and film and the novel The contributors are distinguished scholars from the United Kingdom the United States Italy and Australia Novelists examined include some of the most influential and important of the twentieth century inside and outside Italy Luigi Pirandello Primo Levi Umberto Eco and Italo Calvino This is a unique examination of the Italian Novel and will prove invaluable to students and specialists alike Readers will gain a keen sense of the vitality of the Italian novel throughout its history and a clear picture of the debates and criticism that have surrounded its development
