tendencies in jurisprudence was organised by the Faculty of Canon Law of the Catholic University Leuven in collaboration with the Faculty of Theology of the University of Stellenbosch Both the conference and the book have two objectives The first is informing about the South African history on Church and State relationships and its current situation under the new Constitution The second objective is to search for models leading to a new equilibrium between Church and State in South Africa Models offered by other countries are examined as a point of reference or as a possible source of inspiration International scholars and academics church Ministers as well as leading politicians offer their viewpoints and enter into debate with each other Freedom of Religion and Belief Rinaldo Cristofori, Silvio Ferrari, 2016-12-05 The essays and articles selected for this volume analyze what is generally understood by freedom of religion and belief in today's world The different aspects of this fundamental right are considered from the contents of freedom of religion to the possible limitations of this freedom and from the freedom of or freedom from conundrum to the question of the collective or individual right This volume reflects legal philosophical and international perspectives addresses numerous unanswered questions and offers an effective overview of the current literature and debate in this aspect of the discipline of law and religion Current Issues in Law and Religion Silvio Ferrari, 2017-07-05 This volume focuses on issues that have only recently come to the forefront of the discipline such as freedom from religion ordination of homosexuals apostasy security and fundamentalism issues that are linked to the common themes of secularism and globalization Although these subjects are not new to the academic debate they have become prominent in law and religion circles as a result of recent and rapid changes in society The essays in this volume present multiple points of view facilitate scholars in understanding this evolving discipline and act as a stimulus for further research This collection gives the reader a sense of the key topics and current debates in law and religion and is of interest to law politics human rights and religion scholars The Oxford Handbook of Religion, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Atalia Omer, R. Scott Appleby, David Little, 2015 The book provides a comprehensive overview of the literature on religion conflict and peacebuilding With a focus on structural and cultural violence the volume also offers a cutting edge interdisciplinary reframing of the scope of scholarship in the field Freedom of Religion, Apostasy and Islam Abdullah Saeed, 2017-03-02 Debate on freedom of religion as a human right takes place not only in the Western world but also in Muslim communities throughout the world For Muslims concerned for this freedom one of the major difficulties is the punishment for apostasy death for those who desert Islam This book argues that the law of apostasy and its punishment by death in Islamic law is untenable in the modern period Apostasy conflicts with a variety of foundation texts of Islam and with the current ethos of human rights in particular the freedom to choose one's religion Demonstrating the early development of the law of apostasy as largely a religio political tool the authors show the diversity of opinion among early Muslims on the punishment highlighting the substantial ambiguities about what constitutes apostasy the problematic nature of some of the key textual evidence on which the punishment of apostasy is based and the neglect of a vast amount of clear

Qur'anic texts in favour of freedom of religion in the construction of the law of apostasy Examining the significant challenges the punishment of apostasy faces in the modern period inside and outside Muslim communities exploring in particular how apostasy and its punishment is dealt with in a multi religious Muslim majority country Malaysia and the challenges and difficulties it faces there the authors discuss arguments by prominent Muslims today for an absolute freedom of religion and for discarding the punishment of apostasy
