Visualizing the Past in Italian Renaissance Art Jennifer Cochran Anderson, Douglas N. Dow, 2021-03-22 The essays in Visualizing the Past in Italian Renaissance Art address a foundational concept that was as central to early modern thinking as it is to our own that the past is always an important part of the present Written by the friends students and colleagues of Dr Brian Curran former professor of Art History at the Pennsylvania State University these authors demonstrate how reverberations of the past within the present are intrinsic to the ways in which we think about the history of art Examinations of sculpture painting and architecture reveal the myriad ways that history has been appropriated reinvented and rewritten as subsequent generations including the authors collected here have attained new insight into the past and present
