Overtaken by a Butterfly Nick Eades, 2023-04-28 I sank to my knees in despair. Incredibly, despite being in a tropical jungle, I was cold, really cold. I was shivering from head to foot. The adrenaline that had brought me this far had finally run out and I collapsed to the ground. And that's when I was attacked. Running and flying the world for over 40 years was finally coming to an end. During that time, I had become the World's most experienced Boeing 747 Captain. I had combined my flying with running the equivalent of a marathon every week for four decades. My flying career was at an end. Running had been a passion that had taken me into places and situations that were both exciting and dangerous. I could no longer fly the 747, but at least I was still young enough to run as fast as I ever could. And then I was overtaken by a butterfly. New York Magazine, 1997-02-10 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers.
