Because anime and manga have long proposed and illustrated alternative worlds some created after catastrophes it is fitting that this volume should consider this propensity for world renewal. Individual essays range widely from a poetic and personal reflection on the ritual of tōrōnagashi the lighting of floating paper lanterns that has traditionally commemorated souls lost in great public cataclysms such as war to a study of the various counterfactual histories written about the historical figure of Toyotomi Hideyoshi a former peasant farmer who became a military dictator of feudal Japan. The book also includes an original manga Nanohana from the popular artist Hagio Moto who is quoted as saying I want to think together with everyone else about Fukushima and Chernobyl about the future of the Earth about the future of humankind and to keep thinking moving forward.
