Old-Time Music Makers of New York State Simon J. Bronner, 1988-01-01 Ask an old timer what life was like in rural upstate New York during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and you will hear about the dances and bees that brought villagers and farmers together You will hear of favorite fiddlers who held center stage with dance tunes taken from early British and American sources You will hear of old time music and its significance to a people making the transition from a rural agricultural life to an urban industrial one Old Time Music Makers of New York State is the first book published on this rich legacy of traditional Anglo American music and dance It traces the development of old time music beginning with its movement into New York State from New England in the early nineteenth century and to its combination with commercial country music in the twentieth century Exploring the regional character of the music and its meaning to the people who enjoy it Bronner introduces memorable figures from the major periods in the development of old time music and he places their stories their lives and their music in the context of the region's cultural and historical changes This is much more than a regional study however Bronner brings to the fore issues of national scope and interest He discusses the relationship of old time music to the commercial country music with which it has been closely aligned and he challenges the prevailing wisdom that the origins of country music are in the South Musician fan folklorist and historian alike will benefit from and enjoy this book The many musical transcriptions annotations photographs and appendixes provide a valuable reference to be used again and again

Appalachian Fiddle Music Drew Beisswenger, Roy M. Andrade, Scott Prouty, 2021-02-18 Appalachian fiddle music based on the musical traditions of the people who settled in the mountainous regions of the southeastern United States is widely known and played throughout North America and parts of Europe because of its complex rhythms its catchy melodies and its often ancient sounding stylistic qualities The authors explore the lives and music of 43 of the classic Appalachian fiddlers who were active during the first half of the 20th century Some of them were recorded commercially in the 1920s such as Gid Tanner Fiddlin John Carson and Charlie Bowman Some were recorded by folklorists from the Library of Congress such as William Stepp Emmett Lundy and Marion Reece Others were recorded informally by family members and visitors such as John Salyer Emma Lee Dickerson and Manco Sneed All of them played throughout most of their lives and influenced the growth and stylistic elements of fiddle music in their regions Each fiddler has been given a chapter with a biography several tune transcriptions and tune histories To show the richness of the music the authors make a special effort to show the musical elements in detail but also acknowledge that nothing can take the place of listening Many of the classic recordings used in this book can be found on the web allowing you to hear and read the music together The Fiddle Handbook Chris Haigh, 2009 Presents an introduction to the fiddle explores how musicians incorporate the instrument into different genres and offers instruction on playing standard songs Old Time Stringband Workshop for Mandolin Jane Keefer, Richard Weissman, Terry Prohaska, 2012-03-01 Old Time Stringband Workshop for Mandolin is one in a set of four books each with a matching collection of 40 traditional type fiddle tunes arranged to develop ensemble and jam session playing skills with other acoustic instruments as well as to expand your repertoire of tunes the music is presented in Notation and Tablature with annotations for playing techniques and variations A bonus arrangement of Star of the County Down is available as a free download See www.melbay.com 21765 Old Time Stringband Workshop for Guitar Richard Weissman, Jane Keefer, Terry Prohaska, 2012-03-01 Old Time Stringband Workshop for Flatpick Guitar is one in a set of four books each with a matching collection of 40 traditional type fiddle tunes arranged to develop ensemble and jam session playing skills with other acoustic instruments as well as to expand your repertoire of tunes the music is presented in Notation and Tablature with annotations for playing techniques and variations A bonus arrangement of Star of the County Down is available as a free
