Akerman, 2010-11-15 Finding one's way with a map is a relatively recent phenomenon In premodern times maps were used if at all mainly for planning journeys in advance not for guiding travelers on the road With the exception of navigational sea charts the use of maps by travelers only became common in the modern era indeed in the last two hundred years maps have become the most ubiquitous and familiar genre of modern cartography Examining the historical relationship between travelers navigation and maps Cartographies of Travel and Navigation considers the cartographic response to the new modalities of modern travel brought about by technological and institutional developments in the twentieth century Highlighting the ways in which the travelers operators and planners of modern transportation systems value maps as both navigation tools and as representatives of a radical new mobility this collection brings the cartography of travel by road sea rail and air to the forefront placing maps at the center of the history of travel and movement Richly and colorfully illustrated Cartographies of Travel and Navigation ably fills the void in historical literature on transportation mapping Take the Slow Road: France Martin Dorey, 2021-05-13 Forget hurrying Forget putting your foot down and racing through sweeping bends Forget the understeer whatever that is Forget the blur of a life lived too fast This is a look at taking life slowly It's about taking the time to enjoy journeys and places for their own sake It's about stopping and putting the kettle on Stopping to take a picture Stopping to enjoy stopping How are you going to do it In a camper van or a motorhome of course In this book we define the best driving routes around France for camper vans and motorhomes We show you the coolest places to stay what to see what to do and explain why it's special We meander around France on the most breathtaking roads chugging up mountain passes and pootling along the coast We show you stuff that's fun often free We include the best drives for different kinds of drivers for walkers wine quaffers climbers and skiers We include the steepest the bendiest the most picturesque and most interesting And you don't even have to own a camper van or motorhome we'll tell you the many places you can rent one to take you on the journey All of this is interspersed with beautiful photos handy maps and quirky travel writing from the king of camper vans and motorhomes Martin Dorey So if all you want to do is flick through it on a cold day and plan your next outing you'll be transported albeit slowly to vineyards beaches mountains and highways that make you want to turn the key and go go go
