stories of camaraderie tragic twists of fate and noble sacrifice have been collated in an attempt to bring home the reality of war and the true extent of its tragic cost It is hoped that visitors to the battlefields whether their relatives are listed within or not will find their experience enriched by having access to this treasure trove of stories Somme 1916 Gerald Gliddon,2009-11-20 Gerald Gliddon s classic survey of the Somme battlefield in 1916 first published in 1987 to great acclaim has been greatly expanded and updated to include the latest research and analysis Supported by a wide selection of archive photographs and drawing on the testimony of those who took part this new edition covers both the famous battle sites such as High Wood and Mametz Wood and lesser known villages on the outlying flanks Set out topographically it includes a day by day account of the British build up on the Somme and the ensuing struggle British and German orders of battle and a full history of the cemeteries and memorials both lost and current that sprang up in the years following the First World War The author also provides thumbnail biographies of all the senior officers to fall as well as the winners of the Victoria Cross and those who were shot at dawn In addition Somme personalities such as George Butterworth are covered in far greater detail than before The British first began to take the Somme sector over from the French Army in June 1915 From this time onwards they built up a very close bond with the local population many of whom continued to live in local villages close to the front line The author draws on the latest research and analysis as well as the testimony of those who took part to present all aspects of a battle that was to become a symbol of the horrors of the Great War The Monthly Army List Great Britain. Army,1915 The History of the Second Division 1914-1918 - Volume 2 Everard Wyrall,2013-01-02 Of the six pre war regular divisions only two 2nd and 5th published a detailed history of their part in the Great War The 2nd Division landed in France with the original BEF as part of I Corps Haig between 11 and 16 August 1914 It was not directly engaged at Mons and such casualties as were sustained 10 killed 80 wounded were from artillery fire During the retreat it was engaged at Landrecies 4th Guards Brigade and Villers Cotterets but its first major battles were at the Marne and the Aisne and subsequently it fought in all the battles of First Ypres During the three months September to the end of November 1914 it suffered some 8 500 casualties At the end of 1914 the division moved south to the Bethune sector where it remained throughout 1915 still in I Corps It was at Festubert Loos and the Hohenzollern Redoubt which in all cost almost 9 000 casualties In February 1916 it moved down to the Vimy sector in IV Corps where it stayed till July the next move was to the Somme Here the division had a protracted spell till March 1917 during which time it was in action at Delville Wood Guillemont and the Ancre incurring nearly 8 000 casualties The 2nd was one of the few divisions not involved Third Ypres July November 1917 but it had earlier taken part in the April May Arras offensive and later in November December in the Battle of Cambrai Throughout 1918 the division was in the line for much of the time in the German offensive and in the Advance to Victory its final action was the Battle of the Selle 23 25 October The final casualty figure was around 45 000 Seventeen VCs were won and two of the commanders went on to greater things Monro to Commander in Chief India and

Horne to command of First Army The division took part in the march to the Rhine occupying the area around Cologne In March 1919 the division ceased to exist as such when it was redesignated The Light Division The history is a very good one by probably the most prolific of all the authors of formation and regimental histories of the Great War The detailed account is easy to follow and the Wyrall has taken care to name many individuals in the actions and events he is describing Casualty details are given in appendices and in the text and there is a nominal roll of divisional staff with all the changes throughout the war Bankers' Magazine, Journal of the Money Market and Commercial Digest ,1917 The History of the Second Division, 1914-1918 Everard Wyrall,1918
