

Defeated in the English Civil War which had raged since 1642, King Charles I was under house arrest at Carisbrooke for 10 months in 1647-48.

As first he had freedom of the island but early in 1648 John Burton of Nassau tried to free him, failed, and was hanged. Afterwards Charles was confined to the castle. Still, he could walk and play tennis on a green made for him.

As for his page - Henry Frowdine, the boy tried to escape twice more in the first attempt, he climbed through a window in the battlement, but he got stuck in the bars (the king's battlement is now inside the museum).

The second attempt was made in this area, where galleries and bedrooms had been built by George Carter 40 years before. Charles tried to climb out of the window above you but he was betrayed by his gun 15. They had shot round to better escape, but they really turned him in.
