scope has been expanded to include among its 13 000 entries flower painters in addition to botanical artists over 1400 entries and for the first time garden designers Finally the Dictionary should have international appeal since so many botanists and gardeners worked on collective plants overseas in particular in North America and the British Commonwealth Each entry gives wherever possible details of dates and places of birth and death educational qualifications professional posts honours and awards publications location of plant collections manuscripts drawings and portraits Its main function however is to provide further biographical references to books and periodicals Comprehensive classified indices facilitate access by professions and activities countries and plant interests The Flower Hunter Patricia Fullerton, 2002 Painter naturalist writer and explorer for almost 50 years she travelled to remote parts of Australia India Europe America and New Guinea in pursuit of exotic flowers and wildlife to paint Over 3000 works testify to her prodigious output This publication will help establish her rightful place in Australian art European Ceramics R. Ian Thompson, Frederick Brock, Marjorie Trusted, John Sankey, 2012-08-23 The Victoria Memorial in front of Buckingham Palace is a national icon yet few have heard of its sculptor Thomas Brock. He left school at 12 to be an apprentice at the Worcester Royal Porcelain Works then joined the London studio of John Henry Foley. He completed the figure of the Prince Consort for the Albert Memorial after Foley's death. One of the young sculptors encouraged by Sir Frederic Leighton, he became famous for his lifelike portrait statues of Queen Victoria, Edward VII, Gladstone, Millais and other public figures. Chosen in 1901 as sole sculptor of the Victoria Memorial, he was knighted by King George V at its unveiling in 1911. Brock's remarkable story is told by his son Frederick in this entertaining biography written in the 1920s and now published by permission of the Victoria and Albert Museum. A highly readable and intriguing perspective on a sculptor's life in the late 19th and early 20th century, one which reveals as much about the art world of his time as about the individual whose life forms its subject. John Sankey has worked extensively on Brock and his edition of these memoirs is exemplary. Dr Marjorie Trusted, Senior Curator of Sculpture, Victoria and Albert Museum. An astonishingly thorough record of the life of a sculptor who a hundred years back distilled from European traditions an idiom which now seems to be the appropriate, indeed almost the only, imaginable backdrop to royal ceremonial. In bringing this record to a wider readership, John Sankey reveals some of the less well-known facets of Brock's extensive sculptural oeuvre disseminated around the globe from Copenhagen to Wellington, NZ. Philip Ward Jackson, formerly Conway Librarian, Courtauld Institute of Art. Marks and Monograms on European and Oriental Pottery and Porcelain William Chaffers, 1912 Decorative Arts 1850-1950 British Museum, Judy Rudoe, 1991
