Rubens The Artist As Collector:

Rubens Jeffrey M. Muller, 1989 Peter Paul Rubens assembled a collection of art that was for an artist and for the Netherlands of unprecedented richness and breadth Hundreds of pictures including masterpieces by Titian Bruegel and Van Dyck and prints and drawings as well as ancient sculptures coins and gems were joined with select works by Rubens himself and displayed in the artist's magnificent house in Antwerp This richly illustrated volume is the first to treat the significance of the collection in depth to document its major components and to catalogue all the individual pieces in it A contribution to Rubens studies which will be of lasting value Oliver Millar The Times Literary Supplement Muller fully and effectively combines the techniques of the social historian the intellectual historian and the art historian in order to examine the cultural assumptions and achievements of the period That the story of Rubens as a collector can cover so many aspects of the culture of seventeenth century Europe is vivid testimony to the efficacy of Muller's integration of the techniques and interests of the historian and the art historian Theodore K Rabb Journal of Interdisciplinary History A House of Art Kristin Lohse Belkin, Fiona Healy, Rubenshuis (Antwerp, Belgium), 2004

Gender, Politics, and Allegory in the Art of Rubens Lisa Rosenthal, 2005-09-05 Gender Politics and Allegory in the Art of Peter Paul Rubens examines the intertwined relationship between paintings of family and marriage and of war peace and statehood by the Flemish master Drawing extensively upon recent critical and gender theory Lisa Rosenthal reshapes our view of Rubens works and of the interpretive practices through which we engage them Close readings offer new interpretations of canonical images while bringing into view other powerful works which are less familiar The focus on gender serves as a catalyst that enables an original way of reading visual allegory giving it a dynamic multivalence undiscovered by traditional iconographic methods

The Patron's Payoff Jonathan K. Nelson, Richard J. Zeckhauser, 2014-03-10 An analysis of Italian Renaissance art from the perspective of the patrons who made conspicuous commissions this text builds on three concepts from the economics of information signaling signposting and stretching to develop a systematic methodology for assessing the meaning of patronage

Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577-1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547-1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600-08 this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter-long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age Jeffrey M. Muller, Rubens : the Artist as Collector , Early Modern Women in the Low Countries Susan Broomhall, Jennifer Spinks, 2016-05-13 Combining historical historiographical museological and touristic analysis this study investigates how late medieval and early modern women of the Low Countries expressed themselves through texts art architecture and material objects how they were represented by contemporaries and how they have been interpreted in modern academic and popular contexts Broomhall and Spinks analyse late medieval and early modern women's opportunities to narrate their experiences and ideas as well as the processes that have shaped their representation in the heritage and cultural tourism of the Netherlands and Belgium today The authors study female authored objects such as familial and political letters dolls houses account books visual sources funeral monuments and buildings commissioned by female patrons and further artworks as well as heritage sites streetscapes souvenirs and clothing with gendered historical resonances Employing an innovative range of materials from written sources to artworks material objects heritage sites and urban precincts the authors argue that interpretations of late medieval and early modern women's experiences by historians and art scholars interact with presentations by cultural and heritage tourism providers in significant ways that deserve closer interrogation by feminist researchers Drawn by the Brush Peter C. Sutton, Peter Paul Rubens, Marjorie E. Wieseman, Nico van Hout, 2004-01-01 Oil sketches by Peter Paul Rubens created at speed and in the heat of invention with a colorful loaded brush convey all the spontaneity of the great Flemish painter's creative process This ravishing book draws from both private and public collections to present in full color 40 of Rubens's oil sketches Viewers will find in these informal paintings an enchanting intimacy and gain a new appreciation of Rubens's capacity for invention and improvisation and of his special genius for dramatic design and coloristic brilliance The book investigates the role of the oil sketch in Rubens's work the development of the artist's themes and narratives in his multiple sketches and the history of the appreciation of his oil sketches It also explores some of the unique aspects of his techniques and materials By revealing the oil sketches as the most direct record of Rubens's creative process the book presents him as the greatest and most fluent practitioner of this vibrant and vital medium Canons and Values Larry Silver, Kevin Terraciano , 2019-08-27 A critical rethinking of the way canons are defined constructed dismantled and revised A century ago all art was evaluated through the lens of European classicism and its tradition This volume explores and questions the foundations of the European canon offers a critical rethinking of ancient and classical art and interrogates the canons of cultures and regions that have often been left at the margins of art history It underscores the historical and geographical diversity of canons and the local values underlying them Twelve international scholars consider how canons are constructed and contested focusing on the relationship between canonical objects and the value systems that shape their hierarchies Deploying an array of methodologies including archaeological investigations visual analysis and literary critique the authors examine canon formation throughout the world including Africa India East Asia Mesoamerica South America ancient Egypt classical Greece and Europe Global studies of art which are dismantling the traditionally Eurocentric canon promise to make art history more inclusive But enduring canons cannot be dismissed This volume raises new questions about the importance of canons including those from outside Europe for the wider discipline of art history

This superb book presents 100 notable examples from the Harvard Art Museums distinguished collection of Dutch Flemish and Netherlandish drawings from the 16th to 18th century Featuring such masters as Pieter Bruegel the Elder Peter Paul Rubens and Rembrandt van Rijn the volume showcases beautiful color illustrations accompanied by insightful commentary on prevalent styles and techniques Genres that define this artistic period landscape scenes of everyday life portraiture and still life are explored in detail The book also presents the results of new conservation and technical study including infrared analysis and scientific examinations of drawing materials This revelatory new research has allowed previously illegible underdrawings and inscriptions in many of the artworks to surface for the first time shedding light on longstanding mysteries of production and provenance François Boucher and the Art of Collecting in Eighteenth-Century France Jessica

Priebe,2021-11-29 While earlier studies have focused predominantly on artist François Boucher's artistic style and identity this book presents the first full length interdisciplinary study of Boucher's prolific collection of around 13 500 objects including paintings sculpture prints drawings porcelain shells minerals and other imported curios It discusses the types of objects he collected the networks through which he acquired them and their spectacular display in his custom designed studio at the Louvre where he lived and worked for nearly two decades This book explores the role his collection played in the development of his art his studio his friendships and the burgeoning market for luxury goods in mid eighteenth century France In doing so it sheds new light on the relationship between Boucher's artistic and collecting practices which attracted both praise and criticism from period observers The book will appeal to scholars working in art history museum studies and French history Rubens Jeremy Wood,2010 This book is divided into three parts The first volume is focused on the copies and adaptations that Rubens made from the work of Raphael and three younger artists Giulio Romano Polidoro da Caravaggio and Perino del Vaga who worked with him in Rome before moving to art centres elsewhere Author's preface

The Collector ,1893 Rubens Copies After the Antique Marjon van der Meulen,1994 A New History of Western Art Koenraad Jonckheere,2022-10-15 A radical re examination of 2 500 years of European art deconstructing and demystifying its long history from ancient to present How has art evolved from the pursuit of the ideal human form to a black square on a white canvas Why is a banana duct taped to a wall worth more on the art market than a beautiful seventeenth century landscape By taking art for what it actually is a piece of stone or wood a sheet of paper with some lines drawn on it a painted canvas this lively and accessible account shows how seemingly meaningless objects can be transformed into celebrated works of art Breaking with conventional notions of artistic genius Koenraad Jonckheere explores how stories and emotions give meaning to objects and why changing historical circumstances result in such shifting opinions over time Tracing its story from ancient times to present A New History of Western Art reframes the evolution of European art and radically reshapes our understanding of art history Published in association with Hannibal Books Peasant Scenes and Landscapes Larry Silver,2012-01-04 Larry Silver investigates the origins of new pictorial types and their media as a phenomenon of sixteenth century Antwerp and interprets several pictorial genres as he charts their evolution and their role in the development and marketing of individual artistic styles      Cultural Exchange in Early Modern Europe Robert Muchembled, Francisco Bethencourt, William Monter, 2006 A ground breaking reassessment of the status of information in early modern Europe first published in 2007      Jacob Campo Weyerman and his Collection of Artists' Biographies Lyckle de Vries, 2020-02-25 Weyerman's collection of artists biographies 1729 is exceptional for three reasons Firstly he includes a great number of painters not mentioned elsewhere Secondly he does not limit his selection to good artists only he also discusses failed painters and their abortive careers Thirdly he writes as an art critic who does not hesitate to pass judgments sometimes severe on his chosen subjects In the process Weyerman provides much information on the social and economic circumstances of art production He found that a bohemian lifestyle was pernicious to a painter's career and argued that artists should live and think as merchants In addition to analyzing Weyerman's art critical terminology and his ideas on art theory De Vries includes translations of two full chapters along with the original Dutch
