Glick, Elinor Shaffer, 2014-05-22 Beyond his pivotal place in the history of scientific thought Charles Darwin's writings and his theory of evolution by natural selection have also had a profound impact on art and culture and continue to do so to this day The Literary and Cultural Reception of Charles Darwin in Europe is a comprehensive survey of this enduring cultural impact throughout the continent With chapters written by leading international scholars that explore how literary writers and popular culture responded to Darwin's thought the book also includes an extensive timeline of his cultural reception in Europe and bibliographies of major translations in each country Literary History - Cultural History Herbert Grabes, 2001 Alfred Döblin Steffan Davies, Ernest Schonfield, 2009-10-28 Döblin's texts which range widely across contemporary discourses are paradigms of the encounter between literary and scientific modernity With their use of Tatsachenphantasie they explode conventional language seeking a new connection with the world of objects and things This volume reassesses and reevaluates the uniquely interdisciplinary quality of Döblin's interdiscursive factually inspired poetics by offering challenging new perspectives on key works The volume analyses not only some of Döblin's best known novels and stories but also neglected works including his early medical essays political journalism and autobiographical texts Other topics addressed are D blin s engagement with German history his relation to medical discourse his topography of Berlin his aestheticisation of his own biography and his relation to other major writers such as Heine Benn Brecht and Sebald With contributions in English and in German by scholars from Germany and the United Kingdom the volume presents insights into D blin that are of value to advanced researchers and to students alike
