Feminist Mothering Andrea O'Reilly, 2008-10-09 Feminist Mothering goes beyond critiques of patriarchal motherhood to locate and investigate feminist maternal practices as sites for women's empowerment and social change The contributors see feminist mothering as practices of mothering that seek to challenge and change the norms of patriarchal motherhood that are limiting and oppressive to women For many women practicing feminist mothering offers a way to disrupt the transmission of sexist and patriarchal values from generation to generation Contributors explore the ways in which women integrate activism paid employment nonsexist childrearing practices and non child centered interests in their lives and other caregivers into their children's lives in order to challenge existing societal inequality and create new egalitarian possibilities for women men and families

BOOK JACKET Historical Dictionary of Chile Salvatore Bizzarro, 2005-04-20 This new edition covers in a concise and careful manner major figures and political events focusing especially on the contemporary period specifically events since the coup d'état of September 11 1973 Historical Dictionary of Chile Third Edition includes more than 3 000 dictionary entries covering history politics geography economics the environment culture and a myriad other topics that include writers artists playwrights and important figures many of which were not included in the previous edition Also included are 24 photographs of the paintings of famous Latin American artists The exhaustive and comprehensive bibliography subdivided by topic and fully annotated features more than 1 200 resources including scholarly journals and monographs official reports of the Chilean government and international organizations documents obtained from the United States Congress foreign and domestic newspapers numerous periodicals books Internet sites and interviews with Chileans who lived in exile and then returned to the country Scholars students and general readers will find this book to be a wealth of information covering every aspect of Chile She Who Imagines Laurie Cassidy, Maureen H. O'Connell, 2012-11-01 The idea and ideal of beauty has been used to oppress women of different ages body types skin color and physical ability The theoretical discussion of aesthetics has also been conditioned by these same dynamics of power and oppression In She Who Imagines a diverse set of scholars challenges the exclusion and false definitions while constructing capacious ideas that discover beauty in unexpected places In these essays the authors draw on a variety of arts media painting photography portraiture craftwork poetry and hip hop music thereby joining beauty to truth and in a richly defining way to the practice of justice In a variety of ways all the essays link women's definitions of beauty with experiences of suffering and hence with the yearning for justice All clearly prize resistance to degradation as an essential element of thought Contesting

Legitimacy in Chile Gwynn Thomas, 2011-03-01 Examines the role in Chilean politics during the 1970s and 1980s of cultural beliefs and values surrounding the family Draws on election propaganda political speeches press releases public service campaigns magazines newspaper articles and televised political advertisements Provided by publisher Media, Memory, and Human Rights in Chile K. Sorensen, 2009-06-08 Sorensen investigates the manner in which Chilean media and public culture discuss human rights violations committed during the dictatorship of General Augusto Pinochet 1973 1990 as well as human rights problems which still exist Jewish Writers of Latin America Darrell B. Lockhart, 2013-08-21 Jewish writing has only recently begun to be recognized as a major cultural phenomenon in Latin American literature Nevertheless the majority of students and even Latin American literary specialists remain uninformed about this significant body of writing This Dictionary is the first comprehensive bibliographical and critical source book on Latin American Jewish literature It represents the research efforts of 50 scholars from the United States Latin America and Israel who are dedicated to the advancement of Latin American Jewish studies An introduction by the editor is followed by entries on 118 authors that provide both biographical information and a critical summary of works Argentina Brazil and Mexico home to the largest Jewish communities in Latin America are the countries with the greatest representation but there are essays on writers from Venezuela Chile Uruguay Peru Colombia Costa Rica and Cuba Feminism on the Border Sonia Saldívar-Hull, 2000-05-09 Sonia Saldívar Hull's book proposes two moves that will no doubt leave a mark on Chicano a and Latin American Studies as well as in cultural theory The first consists in establishing alliances between Chicana and Latin American writers activists like Gloria Anzaldúa and Cherrie Moraga on the one hand and Rigoberta Menchú and Domitilla Barrios de Chungara on the other The second move consists in looking for theories where you can find them in the non places of theories such as prefaces interviews and narratives By underscoring the non places of theories Sonia Saldívar Hull indirectly shows the geopolitical distribution of knowledge between the place of theory in white feminism and the theoretical non places of women of color and of third world women Sald var Hull has made a signal contribution to Chicano a Studies Latin American Studies and cultural theory Walter D Mignolo author of Local Histories Global Designs Coloniality Subaltern Knowledges and Border Thinking This is a major critical claim for the sociohistorical contextualization of Chicanas who are subject to processes of colonization our conditions of existence Through a reading of Anzaldua Cisneros and Viramontes Sald var Hull asks us to consider how the subalternized text speaks how and why it is muted How do testimonio autobiography and history give shape to the literary where embodied wholeness may be possible It is a critical de centering of American Studies and Mexican Studies as usual as she traces our cross ed genealogies situated on the borders Norma Alarcon Professor of Ethnic Studies University of California Berkeley

Grandmothers and Grandmothering: Creative and Critical Contemplations in Honour of our Women Elders Kathy Mantas,2021-10-13 Today more and more grandmothers around the world are taking on varied responsibilities and many roles sometimes concurrently Consequently grandmothers continue to play as in the past an influential role not only in the lives of their grandchildren but also in our communities and in society more broadly Grandmothers and Grandmothering Creative and Critical Contemplations in Honour of our Women Elders as the title suggests seeks to pay homage to our grandmothers and their contributions to society As well it aims to explore the textured and complex phenomena of grandmothering from a range of disciplines and cultural perspectives Our hope is that this collection challenges preconceived notions of what it means to be a grandmother and provides insight into the multifaceted nature of grandmothering

Battles for Memory and Justice in Chile Joannie Jean,2023-02-16 This book analyzes how the past and its representation in the public space have been a source of conflict in Chile since the end of the Pinochet regime From a multi disciplinary perspective sociology anthropology and history it studies the work of seven organizations of memory and human rights in Santiago Chile the struggles in which they are engaged and the main debates that have arisen in the country around the themes of impunity truth and memory Covering the period from 1998 to 2018 this book begins its analysis with the detention of Augusto Pinochet in London and concludes with the end of the second term of Michelle Bachelet The seven organizations studied range from family groups and survivors to sites of memory and consciousness Through analyses of the discourses produced by these organizations it examines particular historical periods 1998 2000 2001 2008 2009 2010 2011 2013 and 2014 2018 by focusing on strong debates and events of these conjunctures in order to highlight the struggles of meaning and the conflicts of legitimacy relating to these times In concrete terms particular attention is paid to the analysis of the main themes of litigation the way in which the actors are mobilized their objectives and how the past is evoked in the public space Battles for Memory and Justice in Chile Struggles for Remembrance Legitimacy and Accountability will be of interest to researchers from different disciplines and fields of study within the human and social sciences such as sociologists historians and anthropologists working in fields such as Latin American studies sociology of memory sociology of social movements and human rights studies
