Serving With The Urban Poor:

Serving with the Urban Poor Tetsunao Yamamori, Bryant L. Myers, Kenneth L. Luscombe, 1998 Serving the Urban Poor David Fanshel, Stephen J. Finch, John F. Grundy, 1992-08-24 The urban poor suffer many problems beyond pressing financial concerns including those involving housing health and family relationships Social welfare agencies struggle to cope with the enormity of need presented by individuals and families The providers frequently lack a framework to guide their priorities and the delivery of services This volume based on the authors close and extensive collaboration with New York s Lower East Family Union affords a substantive insightful and effective approach not only to defining the services needed but also to the delivery thereof It also examines the cognitive and emotional states which the clients bring as they seek help Means are provided for establishing priority of needs assessing the value of preventive services and formulating family specific service responses Potential family dissolution and implicit child welfare concerns are viewed as especially critical and receives extensive constructive discussion Stressed poverty level families often approach helping agencies in a nearly exhausted condition The needs of such clients can only be answered and the last straw avoided if the agencies are structured to identify the most immediate needs and to supply the understanding supportive relationship and the requisite practical assistance This book with its extensive base of experience guides the process wisely It offers informed hope that the awful conditions of the urban poor can be ameliorated through better planned and effective service delivery and caring interventions Serving with the Urban Poor, 1998 Guidelines for Formulating Projects to Benefit the Urban Poor in the Developing Countries PADCO., 1976 Urban Waste and Sanitation Services for Sustainable Development Bas van Vliet, Joost van Buuren, Shaaban Mgana, 2013-11-12 Urban sanitation and solid waste sectors are under significant pressure in East Africa due to the lack of competent institutional capacity and the growth of the region s urban population This book presents and applies an original analytical approach to assess the existing socio technical mixtures of waste and sanitation systems and to ensure wider access increase flexibility and ecological sustainability It shows how the problem is not the current diversity in waste and sanitation infrastructures and services and variety of types and scales of technology of formal and informal sector involvement and of management and ownership modes The book focuses instead on the lack of an integrative approach to managing and upgrading of the various waste and sanitation configurations and services so as to ensure wider access flexibility and sustainability for the low income populations who happen to be the main stakeholders This approach coined Modernized Mixtures serves as a nexus throughout the book The empirical core addresses the waste and sanitation challenges and debates at each scale from the micro level households to the macro level international support and is based on the results of a five year long interdisciplinary empirical research program It assesses the socio technical diversity in waste and sanitation and provides viable solutions to sanitation and waste management in East Africa This book provides students researchers and professional in environmental technology sociology management and urban planning with an integrated analytical perspective on centralized and decentralized waste and sanitation configurations and tools for improvement in the technology policy and management of sanitation and solid waste sectors Service-Learning and Social Justice Susan Benigni Cipolle, 2010-03-15 Service Learning and Social Justice provides everything administrators and teachers need to build service learning programs that prepare students as engaged citizens committed to equity and justice Cipolle describes practical strategies for classroom teachers along with the theoretical framework so readers can deftly move beyond the book to a meaningful program for their schools Writing in a conversational style the author explains service learning's unlimited potential in terms of student empowerment and academic achievement and as a tool in developing a student's a lifetime commitment to service and social justice This book's contribution to new knowledge and practice is three fold as it promotes a understanding of how individuals become committed to social justice b identification of how one's orientation to service learning and social justice changes as one develops a more critical consciousness and c practical strategies that teachers can use to support and guide students as they become more critically aware Practitioners will improve their service learning programs and have a framework for preparing students for their experiences as well as ideas for reflection activities Educators will gain a better understanding of the psychology and sociology of developing a commitment to service for social justice Tapping the Market A. Nickson, R. Franceys, 2003-08-12 This book examines the challenge of reform of the urban water supply sector in developing countries based on case studies of state owned water companies in Ghana India Sri Lanka and Zimbabwe The growing public private partnership for urban water supply is analyzed focussing on the concession contract model The implications for meeting the water needs of the urban poor for the regulatory role of the state and for state capacity building are also discussed Catholic Schools in the Public Interest Patricia A. Bauch, 2014-03-01 This book is a study of the contributions of Catholic K 12 schools in the United States to the public interest from the 1800 s to the present It presents seven strategies that have the possibility of leading Catholic schools in positive new directions Outsiders often misunderstand the mission purpose and inclusivity of Catholic schools This book brings a new focus on Catholic schools from the perspective of their service to this country through the education of Catholics and non Catholics In 16 chapters a variety of scholars examine these schools across three periods echoes of the past realities of the present and future directions The intention of the editor and authors of this volume is that Catholic schools and those interested in conducting Catholic school research will find guidance especially in examining newer types of partnerships flourishing in different types of Catholic schools in different regions of the country and types of schools from rural suburban to city and inner city schools By increasing the data we have such studies could help stem the tide of Catholic school demise In addition Catholic school leaders and parents who chose them or are thinking about choosing them will find here a balanced description of what constitutes a Catholic school and how they are different from public schools In understanding better the role and function of Catholic schools in serving the public interest new ideas innovations and improvements can help these schools survive and grow Reinterpreting Urban School Reform Louis F. Miron, Edward P. St. John, 2012-02-01 Have urban schools failed or has reform failed urban schools This book examines existing urban school programs ranging from desegregation to reading improvement in light of available historical empirical and case study evidence Miron and St John and their contributors probe the underlying theoretical normative and political assumptions embedded in specific reform initiatives They explore how reforms might be reconstructed to better address the underlying challenges and they demonstrate that reforms can be constructively critiqued throughout the stages of implementation arguing that greater attention should be paid to ethnic and cultural traditions within urban educational settings Contributors include Leetta Allen Haynes Joseph Cadray Choong Geun Chung Richard Fossey Barry M Franklin David Gordon Carol Anne Hossler Siri Loescher Kim Manoil Genevieve Manset Louis F Mir n Glenda Droogsma Musoba Kathryn Nakagawa Carolyn S Ridenour Ada B Simmons Edward P St John Neil Theobald Sandra Washburn Kenneth K Wong and Kim Worthington

Urban Poverty in India ,2009 Readings for Social Work Practice , Hands On Guide: Urban Planning & Housing Prakash Apte, 2013-12-26 This book is intended to serve as a guide to public spirited men and women students and professionals who may want to participate effectively in the planning of their cities environs and habitat The book provides guidelines for the planning of regions cities projects for habitat and project evaluation of planning proposals It provides food for thought to the state legislators guidelines to the policy makers and lessons to the enforcement agencies in resolving issues with equity It hopes to demonstrate to the reader through examples how these issues have been handled by the author during his 52 years of experience in regional and city planning and urban development The author s considerable experience as consultant with organizations like the World Bank HUDCO City Industrial Development Corporation of Maharashtra Mumbai Metropolitan Region Development Authority and many government and non government committees dealing with urban issues is reflected in the content of this book Neighborhood Poverty Jeanne Brooks-Gunn, Greg Duncan, J. Lawrence Aber, 1997-11-13 Perhaps the most alarming phenomenon in American cities has been the transformation of many neighborhoods into isolated ghettos where poverty is the norm and violent crime drug use out of wedlock births and soaring school dropout rates are rampant Public concern over these destitute areas has focused on their most vulnerable inhabitants children and adolescents How profoundly does neighborhood poverty endanger their well being and development Is the influence of neighborhood more powerful than that of the family Neighborhood Poverty approaches these questions with an insightful and wide ranging investigation into the effect of community poverty on children s physical health cognitive and verbal abilities educational attainment and social adjustment This two volume set offers the most current research and analysis from experts in the fields of child development social psychology sociology and economics Drawing from national and city based sources Volume I reports the empirical evidence concerning the relationship between children and community As the essays demonstrate poverty entails a host of problems that affects the quality of educational recreational and child care services Poor neighborhoods usually share other negative features particularly racial segregation and a preponderance of single mother families that may adversely affect children Yet children are not equally susceptible to the pitfalls of deprived communities Neighborhood has different effects depending on a child's age race and gender while parenting techniques and a family's degree of community involvement also serve as mitigating factors Volume II incorporates empirical data on neighborhood poverty into discussions of policy and program development The contributors point to promising community initiatives and suggest methods to strengthen neighborhood based service programs for children Several essays analyze the conceptual and methodological issues surrounding the measurement of neighborhood characteristics These essays focus on the need to expand scientific insight into urban poverty by drawing on broader pools of ethnographic epidemiological and quantitative data Volume II explores the possibilities for a richer and more well rounded understanding of neighborhood and poverty issues To grasp the human cost of poverty we must clearly understand how living in distressed neighborhoods impairs children's ability to function at every level Neighborhood Poverty explores the multiple and complex paths between community family and childhood development These two volumes provide an indispensable guide for social policy and demonstrate the power of interdisciplinary social science to probe complex social issues

Urban Ills Carol Camp Yeakey, Vetta L. Sanders Thompson, Anjanette Wells, 2013-12-13 Urban Ills Twenty First Century Complexities of Urban Living in Global Contexts is a collection of original research focused on critical challenges and dilemmas to living in cities Volume 2 is devoted to the myriad issues involving urban health and the dynamics of urban communities and their neighborhoods The editors define the ecology of urban living as the relationship and adjustment of humans to a highly dense diverse and complex environment This approach examines the nexus between the distribution of human groups with reference to material resources and the consequential social political economic and cultural patterns which evolve as a result of the sufficiency or insufficiency of those material resources They emphasize the most vulnerable populations suffering during and after the recession in the United States and around the world and the chapters examine traditional issues of housing and employment with respect to these communities

Report India. Ministry of Urban Development,1991 The History of Youth Work in Europe Filip Coussée,Griet Verschelden,Howard Williamson,2009-01-01 Following on from the first two volumes of History of youth work in Europe each of which was based on international seminars the Belgian Presidency of the European Union held an international and interdisciplinary conference on the history of youth work This third volume presents the work of this conference which widened the scope of study from national histories to questions concerning the historical evolution of youth work methods theories and targets The 1st European Conference on the History of Youth Work made a two pronged contribution to learn from history and to engage in intercultural exchange and learning This publication is intended to build bridges between past and future east and west north and south and to inform contemporary debate on youth work and youth policy in Europe

Place Matters Peter Dreier,John H. Mollenkopf,Todd Swanstrom,2004 Analyzes the problematic trends facing America s cities and older suburbs and challenges us to put America s urban crisis back on the national agenda Urban Ecclesiology Pascal D. Bazzell,2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today s ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH s case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH s ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e g congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH s social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH s hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God s presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH s nature mission and place The City-Makers Renana

Jhabvala,Bijal Brahmbhatt,2020-09-25 We are from different settlements but we belong to one city Rekha Vikasini from Ahmedabad Living on the margins of India s urban sprawls the poor women of the nation s slums bear the manifold burdens of housework childcare and earning a livelihood The Mahila Housing SEWA Trust MHT was established in 1994 with the aim of mobilizing and empowering these urban poor women and supporting their access to adequate housing Twenty five years on the MHT has changed the lives of over 1.7 million individuals reaching more than 3,30,000 households and skilling over 17,000 women The City Makers tells the story of this incredible journey a journey of transformation that has the potential to one day change the cities in which we live The accounts of the innumerable courageous women workers who have taken steps individually and collectively to bring about change at the personal and community levels speak of the struggles the sense of solidarity and the triumph they experience as they build their homes with their own hands bargain with government and private agencies for access to water sanitation affordable energy and land rights find solutions to make their homes climate resilient and participate in city level planning and decision making processes Together the success stories of Meena Mumtaz Parul and others like them reflect the central message of the MHT s mission that women living in urban informal settlements must be taken along if India wishes to make its cities participatory inclusive and sustainable
