Serving Adult Learners Lynn E. Birge, 1981      Introduction to Public Librarianship, Third Edition Kathleen de la Pena McCook, Jenny S. Bossaller, Felton Thomas Jr., 2018-12-18 Put simply there is no text about public librarianship more rigorous or comprehensive than McCook's survey. Now the REFORMA Lifetime Achievement Award winning author has teamed up with noted public library scholar and advocate Bossaller to update and expand her work to incorporate the field's renewed emphasis on outcomes and transformation. This essential tool Library Journal remains the definitive handbook on this branch of the profession. It covers every aspect of the public library from its earliest history through its current incarnation on the cutting edge of the information environment including statistics, standards, planning, evaluations, and results, legal issues, funding, and politics, organization, administration, and staffing, all aspects of library technology from structure and infrastructure to websites and makerspaces, adult services, youth services, and children's services, associations, state library agencies, and other professional organizations, global perspectives on public libraries, and advocacy, outreach, and human rights. Exhaustively researched and expansive in its scope, this benchmark text continues to serve both LIS students and working professionals.      1979-1990 Henryk Sawoniak, 2012-02-14 No detailed description available for 1979-1990

Headquarters Library, 1988      Journal of Library History, Philosophy, and Comparative Librarianship, 1984      Readers' Advisory Service in North American Public Libraries, 1870-2005 Juris Dilevko, Candice F.C. Magowan, 2007-02-13 Beginning in the early 1980s, readers advisory services were a widely discussed topic in North American public libraries. By 2005, almost every public library in the United States and Canada offered some form of readers advisory service. The services offered have changed significantly in ways perhaps disadvantageous to adult North American library patrons. This book provides a critical history of readers advisory philosophy and offers a new perspective on the evolution of the service. The book analyzes the debate that shaped readers advisory and discusses how the service has assumed its present form. The study follows readers advisory through its three prominent stages of development, beginning with the period 1870 to 1916 when the service was still a subject of much crucial debate about its meaning and purpose. During the second phase, 1917 to 1962, readers advisory systematically committed itself to meaningful adult education through serious and purposeful reading. The book argues, however, that during the most recent phase of readers advisory, from 1963 until the present, contemporary public libraries have turned their backs on the rich heritage of readers advisory services by valorizing the reading of entertainment-oriented and commodified genre titles and bestsellers. Historical analysis, case studies, and statistical charts augment the book's central argument.      Compilation of Titles Published by their library programs The volumes are arranged geographically with Volume 1 offering interviews from library professionals from the USA and Europe and with Volume 2 sharing programs from Asia Africa Australia and the Middle East The volumes highlight the diversity of the types of programs catering to the varying needs of children and young adults throughout the world Case studies featured in this book outline the details of programs events and activities provided by over 40 organizations in the context of social capital and social inclusion Each interview chapter discusses the contributions made to literacy development and community building of children and teens With the many variations and examples of best practice librarians and educators can glean new ideas for their own programs The interviews reveal the challenges and issues faced and the work being achieved in vastly different environments in many geographic areas and in diverse economic social and cultural contexts The programs include those of national and state libraries public libraries and mobile libraries carried out by public libraries NGOs and commercial organizations in both developed and developing countries They also feature programs of multicultural libraries libraries for indigenous people and libraries for refugees This publication complements the range of initiatives and activities carried out by IFLA s Libraries for Children and Young Adults Section that supports library services and reading promotion initiatives catering to children and young adults around the world These volumes are rich in variety and will provide much food for thought for creating unique and successful library programs
