1. CHARACTER

There are two meanings for the word character:

- 1) The person in a work of fiction.
- 2) The characteristics of a person.

Persons in a work of fiction - Antagonist and Protagonist

One character is clearly central to a story with all major events having some connection to this character;

- She/he is the PROTAGONIST.
- The character in opposition to the main character is called the ANTAGONIST.

The Characteristics of a Person

In order for a story to seem real to the reader, its characters must seem real. Characterization is the information the author gives the reader about the

Fashionable Fictions and the Currency of the Nineteenth-Century British Novel Lauren Gillingham,2023-05-25 Revealing how a modern notion of fashion helped to transform the novel and its representation of social change and individual and collective life in nineteenth century Britain Lauren Gillingham offers a revisionist history of the novel With particular attention to the fiction of the 1820s through 1840s this study focuses on novels that use fashion s idiom of currency and obsolescence to link narrative form to a heightened sense of the present and the visibility of public life It contends that novelists steeped their fiction in date stamped matters of dress manners and media sensations to articulate a sense of history as unfolding not in epochal change but in transient issues and interests capturing the public s imagination Reading fiction by Mary Shelley Letitia Landon Edward Bulwer Lytton W H Ainsworth Charles Dickens Mary Elizabeth Braddon and others Fashionable Fictions tells the story of a nineteenth century genre commitment to contemporaneity that restyles the novel itself

Brand Management Michael Beverland,2021-02-03 Presenting the basics of brand management the book provides both a theoretical and practical guide to brands placing emphasis on the theory that the consumer is a co creator in a brand s identity In a world in which social media and inclusive digital platforms have increased customer engagement the role of brands and branding has changed The line between the producer and the consumer has become blurred consumers are no longer the recipients of brand identity but the co creators playing a significant role in shaping new products and systems Case studies include the Canterbury Crusaders KVD Beauty Kodak Yamaha Ottobock and Holland s rebrand as The Netherlands
