The Book of New Zealand Women Charlotte Macdonald,Merimeri Penfold,Bridget R. Williams,1991 Biographical essays on some three hundred prominent women of New Zealand Everyday Knowledge, Education and Sustainable Futures Margaret Robertson,Po Keung Eric Tsang,2016-06-01 Everyday knowledge offers opportunities for better understanding of significant issues of our times Reflecting these themes this book places emphasis on community wisdom The underpinning argument is that our instinctive urge for survival may not be enough if we do not share our collective knowledge and learn more about the everyday habits beliefs and actions of communities spread across the region Contributions from researchers active within local communities help build knowledge capacity and support for collaborative research Antipodean Childhoods Helga Ramsey-Kurz,Ulla Ratheiser,2020-05-15 Though obvious the productiveness of combining the three concepts of childhood otherness and the postcolonial has not inspired much academic inquiry so far The essays assembled in this book make up for this omission and address aspects of growing up in Australia and New Zealand from various angles

They base their argument on the premise that whether in settler migrant or indigenous communities children tend to be ascribed a space of their own mostly outside but never independent of that of adults How adults configure this space both practically and imaginatively for instance in the arts in adult and children s literature in film and photography or in historical documents is one of the questions answered in the process How these configurations have developed with time and under the influence of specific historical circumstances is another Thus the individual papers are more than a contribution to the current re discovery of the theme of childhood in European cultures in that Antipodean Childhoods remains centrally concerned with the cultural specificity of childhoods lived in Australia and New Zealand and with the theoretical relevance of this specificity to postcolonial literary cultural and historical studies Cinema at the Periphery Dina Iordanova,David Martin-Jones,Belén Vidal,2010-03-15 In the present era of globalization this timely examination of the periphery will interest teachers and students of film and media studies Reference Guide to Short Fiction Thomas Riggs,1999 Reference Guide to Short Fiction provides study and commentary on the most instrumental writers of short fiction through the 20th century International in scope this single scholarly volume includes 779 entries on 377 authors and 402 short stories For the Love of Monsters Editor: LB Goddard,2009-03-26 16 tales of terror
