Richardson,2017-08-04 Attorney Ronald E Richardson's real passion is his faith in Jesus Christ aka Yeshua HaMashiach His obsession with man's inability to come to terms with the concept of being created to be God in the flesh has led him to publish his first book Oneness With God A Christian Attorney's Analysis of What It Means to be Created in the Image and After the Likeness of God in 2006 with Beckham Publications Group Inc. He was the first recipient of the Agape Gospel Academy literary award presented at the Apollo Theater in February 2007. Since then Richardson has embarked on a further theological exploration into the mysteries of God to be examined in his Revised Edition. Richardson, through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, has decided to revise his current publication by inserting additional material and insight. In the revised edition described here, he modifies some of the content in the 2006 edition, he expounds upon new interpretations of scripture that will amaze and excite even the most ardent Christians and prepares the reader for the expansion of the theme he will explore in the new title. Ron Richardson is convinced that God is orchestrating the timeliness and uniqueness of his vision, the substantial readership audience that exists for his platform, and his ability to captivate that audience by pursuing various marketing platform strategies. To be sure, the Association of American Publishers showed a year-to-date increase in the religion category of 2.9% in 2010. That survey does not include book club sales, organization sales, and other non-traditional distribution efforts not generally counted. Richardson sees his typical reader as a combination of the average worshiper seeking a more intimate relationship with his God, the professional and student scholar who are committed to improving their understanding of the Holy scriptures, and the unsaved among mankind who seek an introduction to their Creator God and His unconditional love.

Encyclopedia of Deception Timothy R. Levine, 2014-02-20. The Encyclopedia of Deception examines lying from multiple perspectives drawn from the disciplines of social psychology, sociology, history, business, political science, cultural anthropology, moral philosophy, theology, law, family studies, evolutionary biology, philosophy, and more. From the little white lie to lying on a resume to the grandiose lies of presidents, this two-volume reference explores the phenomenon of lying in a multidisciplinary context to elucidate this common aspect of our daily lives. Not only a cultural phenomenon, historically lying is a frequent occurrence in our everyday lives. Research shows that we are likely to lie or intentionally deceive others several times a day or in one out of every four conversations that lasts more than 10 minutes. Key Features: More than 360 entries authored by key figures in the field, organized A to Z in two volumes which are available in both print and electronic formats. Entries are written in a clear and accessible style that invites readers to explore and reflect on the use of lying and self-deception. Each article concludes with cross-references to related entries and further readings. This academic multi-author reference work will serve as a general, non-technical resource for students and researchers within social and behavioral science programs who seek to better understand the historical role of lying and how it is employed in modern society.
