Sex Power And Travel:

Regulating Sex Elizabeth Bernstein, Laurie Schaffner, 2005-01-05 Regulating Sex is an anthology that presents debates over the role of the state in constructing and controlling erotic practice intimacy and identity The purpose of this edited volume is to address sexual dilemmas in law and the state in substantive areas such as same sex domestic partnerships sexual economies and childhood sexuality via a series of spirited dialogues between socio legal scholars from diverse disciplinary national and political perspectives

Solo Travel, Tourism and Loneliness Hugues Séraphin, Maximiliano E. Korstanje, 2024-07-04 This timely and topical book presents a unique critical exploration of the sociology of single travel and theory of consumption in relation to loneliness and tourism Logically structured and interdisciplinary in scope this book introduces disrupting questions around the convergence of the post modern self in relation to solo travel post pandemic with chapters exploring topics such as romantic loneliness the benefits and drawbacks of single travel in a globalized world the influence of technology on solo travel and the impact of sex tourism International case studies and examples are given throughout and the book is richly illustrated and data led The volume looks to the future exploring relevant trends and the development of new products and services in the next few years This volume is a pivotal resource for students scholars and academics with an interest in tourism and mobility studies international relations development economics crisis management sociology and public policy The book may also be of professional interest to practitioners and policymakers dedicated to tourism sociology and sociology of tourism consumption

Gendered Mobilities Tim Cresswell, 2016-04-22 Being socially and geographically mobile is generally seen as one of the central aspects of women s wellbeing Alongside health education and political participation mobility is indispensable in order for women to reach goals such as agency and freedom Building on new philosophical underpinnings of mobility whereby society is seen to be framed by the convergence of various mobilities this volume focuses on the intersection of mobility social justice and gender The authors reflect on five highly interdependent mobilities that form and reform social life

Women Who Buy Sex Sarah Kingston, Natalie Hammond, Scarlett Redman, 2020-05-10 Drawing on empirical data from women who pay for sexual services and those who provide services to women this ground breaking study is the first of its kind in the UK detailing the experiences of women who pay for sex in an explicit direct prearranged way Unlike previous research on clients which has predominantly focused on men who buy sex or women who engage in romance tourism in places such as the Caribbean this innovative research offers new and original insights into the demand side of commercial sex Too often it is assumed that only men pay for sex from women or other men Women are assumed to be service providers and are unimaginable as clients This book therefore offers a radical departure from existing scholarship on commercial sex In addition the book examines the experiences of couples who pay for commercial sex a client group that has received scant investigation The book explores women s reasons for their engagement in commercial sex services their backgrounds and characteristics their strategies for remaining safe and managing potential risks as well as their sexual health strategies The nature of sexual service bookings with women clients is also examined exploring the types of services women seek the places where bookings occur and the fees they pay Finally the experiences of men women and trans sex workers who provide sexual services to women are examined By drawing on our unique data and comparing it to the literature on men clients we present our theory Converging Sexualities We argue that commercial sex is a site of behavioural convergence and that women clients are behaving in ways that could be described as masculine or feminine Our study therefore offers new ways to understand sexuality This book will be of interest to researchers in the field of sexuality sex work and women's behaviour Travelling in Different Skins Dúnlaith Bird, 2012-07-05

Dúnlaith Bird argues that vagabondage a physical and textual elaboration of gender identity in motion emerges as a totemic concept in European women's travel writing from 1850 For travellers including Olympe Audouard Isabella Bird Isabelle Eberhardt and Freya Stark vagabondage is a means of pushing out the physical geographical and textual parameters by which women are defined Travelling in Different Skins explores the negotiations of European women travel writers from 1850 1950 within the traditionally male oriented discourses of colonialism and Orientalism Moving from historical overview to close textual reading it traces a complex web of tacit collusion and gleeful defiance These women improvise access to the highly gendered imaginative geography of the Orient Tactics including cross dressing commerciality and the effacement of their male companions are used to carve out a space for their unconventional and often sexually hybrid constructions Using a composite theoretical basis of the later critical work of Judith Butler and Edward Said this comparative study of British and French colonial empires and gender norms draws out the nuances in these travellers constructions of gender identity Women travel writers are shown to play an important role in the legacy of sexual experimentation and self creation in the Orient traditionally associated with male writers including Gide and Pierre Loti and now ripe for critical re evaluation This study demonstrates how these women use lived experiences of restriction and negotiation to elaborate advanced theories of motion and gender construction presaging the concerns of twenty first century feminism and post colonialism New Sociologies of Sex Work Kate Hardy, Sarah Kingston, 2016-05-06

Sex work studies have seen an expansion in publications over the past decade drawing together disciplines from across the social sciences namely sociology criminology and social policy There has however been a tendency for research and writing to focus on the more obvious aspect of the sex industry the visible elements of female street prostitution and those features which attract media attention such as the criminalised aspects of the sex trade The sex industry is diverse in terms of its organisation presentation participants and how it is located in the broader context of globalisation and regulation there is a need for publications which demonstrate this breadth This book makes an outstanding contribution to the sociology of sex work through advancing theoretical policy methodological and empirical ideas as each chapter pushes the boundaries of a specific area by offering new and critical research as well as commentary Economics, Sexuality, and Male Sex Work Trevon D.

Logan,2017-01-11 This book provides the first economic analysis of the billion dollar male sex work market in the United States Sex Tourism in Bahia Erica Lorraine Williams,2013-10-30 For nearly a decade Brazil has surpassed Thailand as the world s premier sex tourism destination As the first full length ethnography of sex tourism in Brazil this pioneering study treats sex tourism as a complex and multidimensional phenomenon that involves a range of activities and erotic connections from sex work to romantic transnational relationships Erica Lorraine Williams explores sex tourism in the Brazilian state of Bahia from the perspectives of foreign tourists tourism industry workers sex workers who engage in liaisons with foreigners and Afro Brazilian men and women who contend with foreigners stereotypical assumptions about their licentiousness She shows how the Bahian state strategically exploits the touristic desire for exotic culture by appropriating an eroticized blackness and commodifying the Afro Brazilian culture in order to sell Bahia to foreign travelers Race and Sexuality Salvador Vidal-Ortiz,Brandon Andrew Robinson,Cristina Khan,2018-04-27 The connections between race and sexuality are constant in our lives yet they are not often linked together in productive analytical ways This illuminating book delves into the interrelation of race and sexuality as inseparable elements of our identities and social lives The authors approach the topic through an interdisciplinary lens focusing on power social arrangements and hierarchies and the production of social difference Their analysis maps the historical discursive and structural manifestations of race and sexuality noting the everyday effects that the intersections of these categories have on people s lived experiences Considering both US based and transnational cases this book presents an empirical grounding for understanding how race and sexuality are mutually constitutive categories Providing a comprehensive overview of racialized sexualities this book is an essential text for any advanced course on race sexuality and intersectionality Journalism Anna McKane,2009-01-01 Print journalism is one of the most popular career options among recent graduates But how many of them land that crucial first job and go on to build a career in print journalism This book gives you all you need to plan and build your career in journalism including sections on Analysis of the industry sectors and structures Types of print journalism newspapers national and regional magazines consumer handouts voluntary sector publishing web journalism agency work photojournalism Range of job opportunities freelance salaried in house in the field Routes into journalism getting in and getting on Training and education resources contacts The Geographies of Digital Sexuality Catherine J. Nash,Andrew Gorman-Murray,2019-05-22 This edited book engages with the rapidly emerging field of the geographies of digital sexualities that is the interlinkages between sexual lives material and virtual geographies and digital practices Modern life is increasingly characterised by our integrated engagement in digital material landscapes activities and our intimate life online can no longer be conceptualised as discrete from real life Our digital lives are experienced as a material embeddedness in the spaces of everyday life marking the complex integration of real and digital geographies Perhaps nowhere is this clearer than in the ways that our social and sexual practices such as dating or casual sex are bound up online and online geographies and in many cases constitute specific sexuality based communities crossing the digital material divide The aim of this collection is to explore the complexities of these newly constituted and interwoven sexual and gender landscapes through empirical theoretical and conceptual engagements through wide ranging innovative and original research in a new and quickly moving field Island Futures Mimi Sheller,2020-10-16 In Island Futures Mimi Sheller delves into the ecological crises and reconstruction challenges affecting the entire Caribbean region during a time of climate catastrophe Drawing on fieldwork on postearthquake reconstruction in Haiti flooding on the Haitian Dominican border and recent hurricanes Sheller shows how ecological vulnerability and the quest for a just recovery in the Caribbean emerge from specific transnational political economic and cultural dynamics Because foreigners are largely ignorant of Haiti s political cultural and economic contexts especially the historical role of the United States their efforts to help often exacerbate inequities Caribbean survival under ever worsening environmental and political conditions Sheller contends demands radical alternatives to the pervasive neocolonialism racial capitalism and US military domination that have perpetuated what she calls the coloniality of climate Sheller insists that alternative projects for Haitian reconstruction social justice and climate resilience and the sustainability of the entire region must be grounded in radical Caribbean intellectual traditions that call for deeper transformations of transnational economies ecologies and human relations writ large Sex Trafficking, Human Rights, and Social Justice

Tiantian Zheng,2010-09-13 This volume explores the life experiences agency and human rights of trafficked women in order to shed light on the complicated processes in which anti trafficking human rights and social justice are intersected

Gender and War Joy Damousi,Marilyn Lake,1995 This exciting 1995 collection of essays explores the inter relationship of gender and war in Australia Its focus is women s and men s experiences in WWI WWII and the Vietnam War Challenging the traditional images of men and women in wartime this book shows that war offers opportunities that erode gender boundaries

Supporting Survivors of Sexual Violence and Abuse Claire Dosdale,Emma Senior,Lynette Shotton,Katy Skarparis,2024-05-13 This textbook provides practical guidance to enable health professionals to support survivors of sexual violence It gives insight into the complex and wide ranging nature and experience of sexual violence barriers to disclosure and explores the implications for survivors health professionals and healthcare organisations An evidence based resource this book provides information guidance and signposting for all those who might receive disclosures of sexual violence challenging perceptions stigma and judgement As well as discussing disclosure of recent experiences it takes into account that life events may trigger the re surfacing of prior experiences The book also operates as a practical tool prompting professionals to reflect on their own clinical experience of dealing with disclosures of sexual violence The chapters look at the full breadth of sexual violence and abuse including rape and sexual assault child sexual abuse harassment and stalking exploitation trafficking conflict situations traditional practices and sexual violence in LGBTQAI communitites Enabling readers to develop the necessary knowledge and understanding to inform their practice this book is a comprehensive resource for all health professionals across primary and secondary care It is also a valuable text for those taking post registration courses in sexual health specialist community and public health nursing district nursing mental health and children s nursing among others Reflection sections can be used to support professional registration revalidation Fit for Passion: How Exercise, Nutrition, and Nature Can Boost Your Sex Life Zoe Mathews, Discover how a healthy body can lead to a better sex life in this empowering guide Fit for Passion explores the connection between fitness nutrition and a more exciting satisfying love life Packed with practical advice from exercise routines that boost libido to delicious diet plans that fuel your body for maximum energy this book shows you how to stay fit for both life and love Plus learn how embracing nature and enjoying intimate moments in wild outdoor settings can reignite your passion and keep things thrilling Whether you re looking to feel more confident in the bedroom boost your stamina or simply spice things up Fit for Passion gives you the tools to elevate every part of your relationship and yourself Men, Masculinity and Contemporary Dating Chris

Haywood,2018-05-02 At a time when traditional dating practices are being replaced with new ways to meet potential partners this book provides fresh insights into how are men responding to new ways of dating Drawing upon original research this book examines a wide range of contemporary dating practices that includes speed dating holiday romances use of dating apps online sex seeking and dogging It reveals the ways in which men draw upon traditional models of masculinity to negotiate these changes but also the extent to which men are responding by elaborating new masculinities Through an investigation of the dynamics of heterosexuality and masculinity this book highlights the importance attached to authenticity and the increasing marketization and commodification of dating It argues that in a post truth world men must also come to terms with a post trust dating landscape Combining rich empirical material with keen theoretical analysis this innovative work will have interdisciplinary appeal for students and scholars of sociology media studies cultural studies and gender studies Sex and the Sexual during People's Leisure and Tourism Experiences Neil Carr,Yaniv Poria,2010-05-11 Sex and the sexual have for far too long been consigned to the dark corners by social scientists in general and tourism and leisure scholars in particular Sex and the Sexual During People s Leisure and Tourism Experiences seeks to begin to rectify this situation by bringing the position and nature of sex and the sexual into the light of academic debate As such this book is designed to highlight cross disciplinary emerging work on sex and the sexual in leisure and tourism and provide the readers with insights into this social realm It encompasses a broad array of sex related issues and tourism and leisure environments from across a variety of countries The book should appeal to researchers and students across the humanities and social sciences both for the value of the research in its own right and the ability of it to be used as a lens through which to view the position of sex and the sexual as well as tourism and leisure in today s world Overall it is argued that sex and the sexual should play a part in the academic discourse especially if we wish to describe what is actually happening out there as far as tourism and leisure are concerned Emerging Trends in Global Health Gurinder Shahi,Bethi Luu,2008-12-19 This book is an edited compilation of topical review essays addressing emerging issues concerns and opportunities in global health
