New Consumer Marketing Susan Baker, Margrit Bass, 2003

Interactive Marketing Christopher Miles, 2010-05-18 This book critically examines the rhetoric surrounding current trends in the adoption of tropes of interactivity in marketing communication Concepts such as viral advertising customer generated content brand communities and the whole panoply of Web 2.0 mediated marketing technologies all have their foundations in an overt positioning of interactivity as the savior of effective marketing communication Yet what exactly is meant by interactivity in these contexts and how far does it represent a revolution in the methodologies of marketing Anchoring his analysis in a critique of the assumptions of control embedded in current marketing communication models and the rhetorical analysis of exemplar texts from the Marketing Management Customer Relationship Management Viral Marketing and Buzz Marketing paradigms Chris Miles investigates the constructions and reconstructions of discourse that surround the uses of interactivity in contemporary marketing discourses In doing so he offers a radical new model of marketing based upon a recursive constructivist understanding of communication that uses metaphors of invitation and exploration to rebuild interactivity at the center of marketing The work culminates in a reading of the theory of Relationship Marketing that uses autism as an allegory to interrogate the communicative paradox at the heart of this contemporary marketing panacea

Customer Relationship Management Chaturvedi, 2006-03-30 About the Book Customer Relationship Management CRM was born in the 1990s in the West In the initial phases the over enthusiastic businesses invested almost US 400 billion But the very same businesses were disheartened very soon primarily because there were no visible And there were no quick results mainly because 80 per cent of the investments were made in technology CRM meant technology to them then CRM means technology to them even today However no business need bother so long as it is ready to go by the human aspect of CRM and take technology only as a facilitator This book is an attempt to present this human side of CRM The authors belief is that in the long term CRM can be successful only due to its human face The book is arranged in three Parts Part I Customer Relationship Management contains the academic inputs titled as Customer is King Customer Managed Relationships MINI Marketing Types of CRM Building Blocks of CRM CRM Strategies Customer Relationship Management by Indian Firms Customer Retention Strategies HRM in CRM and Implementing a Technology based CRM Solution Part II Call Centre Management covers the areas concerning the working of a call centre titled as The Call Centre Call Centre Functionality Team Building Customer Relationship Management Web based Customer Support and Contact Centre Glossary Part III Cases gives a first hand idea of the working of CRM in the more peculiar contexts like public sector undertakings through five well documented cases Contents Part I Customer Relationship Management Customer is King Customer Managed Relationships Mini Marketing Types of CRM Building Blocks of CRM CRM Strategy Customer Relationship Management by Indian Firms Customer Retention Strategies HRM in CRM Implementing a Technology based CRM Solution Future Trends in CRM Part II Call Centre Management The Call Centre Call Centre Functionality Team Building Customer Relatio
