A Dictionary of the Avant-Gardes ,2013-05-13 A Dictionary of the Avant Gardes recognizes that change is a driving force in all the arts It covers major trends in music dance theater film visual art sculpture and performance art as well as architecture science and culture Abandoned Women and Poetic Tradition Lawrence Lipking, 1988-09-15 At the heart of poetic tradition is a figure of abandonment a woman forsaken and out of control She appears in writings ancient and modern in the East and the West in high art and popular culture produced by women and by men What accounts for her perennial fascination What is her function in poems and for writers Lawrence Lipking suggests many possibilities In this figure he finds a partial record of women's experience an instrument for the expression of religious love and yearning a voice for psychological fears and finally a model for the poet Abandoned women inspire new ways of reading poems and poetic tradition The Selling and Self-Regulation of Contemporary Poetry J.T. Welsch, 2020-03-31 The Selling and Self Regulation of Contemporary Poetry is the first book length study of the contemporary poetry industry By documenting radical changes over the past decade in the way poems are published sold and consumed it connects the seemingly small world of poetry with the other wider creative industries In reassessing an art form that has been traditionally seen as free from or even resistant to material concerns the book confronts the real pressures and real opportunities faced by poets and publishers in the wake of economic and cultural shifts since 2008 The changing role of anthologies prizes and publishers are considered alongside new technologies new arts policy and re conceptions of poetic labour Ultimately it argues that poetry s continued growth and diversification also leaves individuals with more responsibility than ever for sustaining its communities

Life Writing Meg Jensen, Jane Jordan, 2009-03-26 In our age self publishing self broadcasting and telling stories about our own lives and the lives of others are all pervasive This is also the age of the witness the age of testimony in which first hand accounts personal experience life change and evolution are valued for good or ill over distanced reflection What are we to make of all this telling of lives The essays collected in Life Writing The Spirit of the Age and the State of the Art from writers and academics associated with the Centre for Life Narrative Studies at Kingston University in London begin to address this very question and in doing so demonstrate the fluidity and diversity of life writing itself The remit of the Centre for Life Narratives is to rise to the challenge poised to writers teachers and researchers alike by this very fluidity and diversity in our discipline and is exemplified here with contributions from academics curators editors and biographers including Neal Ascherson Victoria Glendinning Professor Kathryn Hughes Hanif Kureishi Blake Morrison and Lawrence Goldman editor of the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography This collection of essays from CLN offers the reader our founding contribution to the debates that surround this era defining genre and as such presents both the state of the art and the spirit of our age

Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-Garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020-02-27 This is a book about artistic modernism contending with the historical transfigurations of modernity As a conscientious engagement with modernity s restructuring of the lifeworld the modernist avant garde raised the stakes of this engagement to programmatic explicitness But even beyond the vanguard the global phenomenon of jazz combined somatic assault with sensory tutelage Jazz like the new technologies of modernity re calibrated sensory ratios The criterion of the new as self making also extended to names pseudonyms and heteronyms The protocols of modernism solicited a pragmatic arousal of bodily sensation as artistic resource validating an acrobatic sensibility ranging from slapstick and laughter to the pathos of bereavement Expressivity trumped representation The artwork was a diagram of perception not a mimetic rendering For artists the historical pressures of altered perception provoked new models and Ezra Pound s slogan Make It New became the generic rallying cry of renovation The paradigmatic stance of the avant garde was established by Futurism but the discovery of prehistoric art added another provocation to artists Paleolithic caves validated the spirit of all over composition unframed and dynamic

Geometric abstraction Constructivism and Purism and Surrealism were all in quest of a new mythology Making it new yielded a new pathos in the sensation of radical discrepancy between futurist striving and remotest antiquity The Paleolithic cave and the USSR emitted comparable siren calls on behalf of the remote past and the desired future As such the present was suffused with the pathos of being neither but subject to both      Ecstatic Émigré Claudia Keelan,2018-01-30 Most think of an migr as one who leaves her native land to find home in another Claudia Keelan in essays both personal and critical enlists poetic company for her journey engaging both canonical and common figures from Gertrude Stein to a prophetic Las Vegas cab driver named Caesar Mapping her own peripatetic evolution in poetry and her nomadic life she also engages with Christian and Buddhist doctrines on the virtues of dispossession Ecstatic migr pays homage to poets from Thoreau and Whitman to Alice Notley all of whom share a commitment to living and writing in the moment Keelan asks the same questions about the growth of flowers or the meaning of bioluminescence as she does about the poetics of John Cage or George Oppen Her originality is grounded by the ways in which she connects poetic principles with the spiritual concepts of via negativa demonstrated both in St John of the Cross and Mahayana Buddhism In addition her essays demonstrate an activist spirit and share a commitment to the passive resistance demonstrated in Martin Luther King Jr s concept of the beloved community and philosopher Simone Weil s dedication to exile      Trade Politics Brian Hocking,Steven McGuire,2019-01-15 Trade has always been an intensely political activity Its conduct determines the well being of entire national communities and expansion of trade since the Second World War has been one of the major engines of world economic growth In this new fully updated edition leading experts from around the world provide a comprehensive overview of the politics of international trade in the twenty first century The book explains the changing political environment in which trade policy is shaped the core political issues the future trade agenda and the role of the key actors Subjects covered include transatlantic trade relations regional trading agreements in Asia Europe North America and Latin America how trade affects developing countries the politics of the World Trade Organization key policy areas such as agriculture competition and intellectual property the role of firms and governments in international trade how trade impacts on human rights and the environment
