birth in rural Kentucky during the Great Depression to his suicide in Manhattan in 1985 Coleman Dowell played many roles He was a songwriter and lyricist for television He was a model He was a Broadway playwright He served in the U S Army both abroad and at home And most notably he was the author of novels that Edmund White among others has called masterpieces But Dowell was deeply troubled by a depression that hung over him his entire life Pegged as both a Southern writer and a gay writer he loathed such categorization preferring to be judged only by his work Fever Vision describes one of the most tormented talented and inventive writers of recent American literature and shows how his eventful life contributed to the making of his incredible art

Forms of Poetic Attention Lucy Alford, 2020-01-28 A poem is often read as a set of formal technical and conventional devices that generate meaning or affect However Lucy Alford suggests that poetic language might be better understood as an instrument for tuning and refining the attention Identifying a crucial link between poetic form and the forming of attention Alford offers a new terminology for how poetic attention works and how attention becomes a subject and object of poetry Forms of Poetic Attention combines close readings of a wide variety of poems with research in the philosophy aesthetics and psychology of attention Drawing on the work of a wide variety of poets such as T S Eliot Wallace Stevens Frank O Hara Anne Carson Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Harryette Mullen Al Khans Rainer Maria Rilke Arthur Rimbaud and Claudia Rankine Alford defines and locates the particular forms of attention poems both require and produce She theorizes the process of attention making its objects its coordinates its variables while introducing a broad set of interpretive tools into the field of literary studies Forms of Poetic Attention makes the original claim that attention is poetry's primary medium and that the forms of attention demanded by a poem can train hone and refine our capacities for perception and judgment on and off the page

Ida Gertrude Stein, 2014-05-14 Gertrude Stein wanted Ida to be known in two ways as a novel about a woman in the age of celebrity culture and as a text with its own story to tell With the publication of this workshop edition of Ida we have the novel exactly as it was published in 1941 and we also have the full record of its creation Logan Esdale offers informative critical commentary and judiciously selected archival materials to illuminate Stein's experience of authorship from the novel's beginning in early summer 1937 through the various drafts and negotiations with her publisher to the reviews that greeted the book's publication Stein's careful and systematic preservation of all Ida related materials for her archive at the Yale University Library was a conscious decision and an invitation for us to study the complexity of her creative process

"Objectivists" 1927-1934 Tom Sharp, 1982 Guys Like Us Michael Davidson, 2004 Guys Like Us considers how writers of the 1950s and 60s struggled to craft literature that countered the politics of consensus and anticommunist hysteria in America and how notions of masculinity figured in their effort Michael Davidson examines a wide range of postwar literature from the fiction of Jack Kerouac to the poetry of Gwendolyn Brooks Frank O Hara Elizabeth Bishop and Sylvia Plath He also explores the connection between masculinity and sexuality in films such as Chinatown and The Lady from Shanghai as well as television shows plays and magazines from the period What results is a virtuoso work that looks at American poetic and artistic innovation through the revealing lenses of gender and history Robert Duncan Robert Duncan, 2012-12-17 This volume of the collected poetry non critical prose and plays of Robert Duncan gathers all of Duncan's books and magazine publications up to and including Letters Poems 1953 1956

American Literature and the Destruction of Knowledge Ronald E. Martin, 1991 This challenging study of a number of American writers belongs in the tradition of the history of ideas approach to literary history It offers an analysis of American literary developments and the relationship between writers and the philosophical and social thought of their times Martin examines the works of Emerson Whitman Dickinson Crane Frost Pound Hemingway Dos Passos Stevens Williams and several others with a sharp eye for the artistic consequences of changing epistemological assumptions and for the connection of ideas and form ISBN 0 8223 1125 9 29 95 The Correspondence of Ezra Pound and the Frobenius Institute, 1930-1959 Ezra Pound, 2024-02-22 Collecting in full for the first time the correspondence between Ezra Pound and members of Leo Frobenius Forschungsinstitut für Kulturmorphologie in Frankfurt across a 30 year period this book sheds new light on an important but previously unexplored influence on Pound's controversial intellectual development in the Fascist era Ezra Pound's long term interest in anthropology and ethnography exerted a profound influence on early 20th century literary Modernism These letters reveal the extent of the influence of Frobenius concept of Paideuma on Pound's poetic and political writings during this period and his growing engagement with the culture of Nazi Germany Annotated throughout the letters are supported by contextualising essays by leading Modernist scholars as well as relevant contemporary published articles by Pound himself and his leading correspondent at the Institute the American Douglas C Fox Marketing Modernisms Kevin J. H. Dettmar, Stephen Myers Watt, 2025-10-01 Rarely have genres of literary expression been looked upon or read as commodities within a market system we tend to think of our literature as pure untainted by any interaction with the world of commerce Critical accounts of modernism are frequently theorized across the divide between the project itself and the larger marketplace the world of consumption Marketing Modernisms calls into question this curious separation and examines the material intellectual and ideological practices that comprise the notion of marketing Marketing Modernisms is concerned with Anglo American modernists and their potential readers in both the popular audience and the academy Examining the forms of promotion employed by book publishing houses in the editorial offices of literary magazines and in the minds of modern writers the essays bring to the fore little known connections between writers such as Ezra Pound T S Eliot James Joyce Virginia Woolf and Langston Hughes and the commercial marketplace they engaged The book's provocative themes include the strategies that modernists and their publishers employed to market their work to fashion themselves as artists or celebrities and to bridge the gap between an avant garde elite and the popular reader Other essays explore the difficulties confronted by women African American and gay and lesbian writers in gaining literary acceptance and achieving commercial representation while maintaining the gendered racial and sexual aspects of their lives Women, Writing, and

Fetishism, 1890-1950 Clare L. Taylor, 2003 Clare L Taylor investigates the problematic question of female fetishism within modernist women's writing 1890 1950 Drawing on gender and psychoanalytic theory she re examines the works of Sarah Grand Radclyffe Hall H D Djuna Barnes and Anaïs Nin in the context of clinical discourses of sexology and psychoanalysis to present an alternative theory of female fetishism challenging the perspective that denies the existence of the perversion in women The Cumulative Book Index ,1979 A world list of books in the English language McLuhan in Space Richard Cavell, 2002-01-01 Demonstrates how McLuhan extended insights derived from advances in physics and artistic experimentation into a theory of acoustic space which he then used to challenge the assumptions of visual space that had been produced through print culture
