New Englishes Ayo Bamgboṣe, L. Ayo Banjo, Andrew Thomas, 1995 World Englishes Kingsley Bolton, Braj B. Kachru, 2006 World Englishes Gunnel Melchers, Philip Shaw, Peter Sundkvist, 2019-06-05 The third edition of World Englishes provides an engaging overview of the global variations in vocabulary grammar phonology and pragmatics of English as it is used worldwide This book introduces the principles of linguistic variation and provides coverage on the roots of English the spread of English variations of English as a second language and trends for the future Thoroughly updated throughout in line with recent research this third edition now also includes 43 audio examples of speakers of native 17 and of non native 26 English reflecting the global variety of the language available to download from www.routledge.com 9781138487659 descriptions of selected twenty first century developing varieties including Chinese English Russian English and Vietnamese English greater linguistic detail on second language English in many areas improved and updated descriptions of first language varieties a new framework for describing lexical variation full discussion throughout of English in social media Offering a thorough and detailed descriptive account of all the main varieties of English across the globe World Englishes provides a balanced discussion of political issues and the sociolinguistic background to variation in English spoken and written face to face on paper and online in the twenty first century This book is essential reading for students approaching this topic for the first time The Oxford Handbook of World Englishes Markku Filppula, Juhani Klemola, Devyani Sharma, 2017-02-14 As the most widely documented language in human history English holds a unique key to unlocking some of the mysteries of the uniquely human endowment of language Yet the field of World Englishes has remained somewhat marginal in linguistic theory This collection heralds a more direct and mutually constructive engagement with current linguistic theories questions and methodologies It achieves this through areal overviews theoretical chapters and case studies The 36 articles are divided between four themes Foundations World Englishes and Linguistic Theory Areal Profiles and Case Studies Part I sets out the complex history of the global spread of English This is followed in Part II by chapters addressing the mutual relevance and importance of World Englishes and numerous theoretical subfields of Linguistics Part III offers detailed accounts of the structure and social histories of specific varieties of English spoken across the globe highlighting points of theoretical interest The collection closes with a set of case studies that exemplify the type of analysis encouraged by the volume As attention is focused on innovative work at the interface of dialect description and theoretical explanation the book is more succinct in its treatment of applied themes which are given complementary coverage in other works Convergence: English and Nigerian Languages Ozo-mekuri Ndimele, 2016-02-22 The present volume which is the 5th in the Nigerian Linguists Festschrift Series is devoted to Professor Munzali A Jibril a celebrated icon in university administration and an erudite Professor of English Linguistics The title of this special edition was specifically chosen to crown Professor Jibril's academic prowess in both English and indigenous Nigerian languages and

to mark and laud his official departure from active university lectureship 72 assessed papers are included from the many submitted Papers cover the main theme of the volume i e the interaction between English and indigenous Nigerian languages and there are a number of papers on other secular areas of linguistics such as language and history language planning and policy language documentation language engineering lexicography translation gender studies language acquisition language teaching and learning pragmatics discourse and conversational analysis and literature in English and African languages There is also a rich section devoted to the majwor traditional fields of linguistics phonology morphology syntax and semantics

Legacies of Colonial English Raymond Hickey,2005-02-24 As a result of colonization many varieties of English now exist around the world Originally published in 2005 Legacies of Colonial English brings together a team of internationally renowned scholars to discuss the role of British dialects in both the genesis and subsequent history of postcolonial Englishes Considering the input of Scottish English and Irish dialects they closely examine a wide range of Englishes including those in North and South America South Africa Asia Australia and New Zealand and explain why many of them still reflect non standard British usage from the distant past Complete with a checklist of dialect features a detailed glossary and set of general references on the topic of postcolonial Englishes this book will be an invaluable source to scholars and students of English language and linguistics particularly those interested in sociolinguistics historical linguistics and dialectology

World Englishes Hans-Georg Wolf, Frank Polzenhagen,2009-02-26 The book is the first of its kind to establish Cognitive Linguistics as a research paradigm within the field of world Englishes The authors survey the main tenets of both areas of linguistic enquiry and suggest that the theoretical and methodological apparatus developed both within Cognitive Linguistics generally and within its novel sub discipline Cognitive Sociolinguistics can overcome certain limitations inherent in traditional approaches to cultural variation in language They present a case study of the linguistic realization of the cultural model of community in African English as an exemplar for the investigation of cultural models in other varieties of English Corpus linguistic methods are combined with conceptual metaphor analysis and blending theory to elucidate a vast network of conceptualizations salient to speakers of African English The findings based on computer corpora and a range of additional sources are discussed against the background of work in anthropology religious studies and political science The book also reflects on the role of English in intercultural communication and concludes with a comparison of Cognitive Linguistics and pragmatic functionalism placing the former in the wider framework of a hermeneutic philosophy that stresses dialogic understanding

English in Africa Alamin M. Mazrui,2004 This text offers a critical examination of aspects of the politics of the role of English in Africa and its Diaspora It looks at its changed location in the post Cold War era and the challenges it poses to the enduring quest for intellectual liberation pan Africanism and Afrocentricity The study also explores the spaces and possibilities for appropriating the language towards a counter hegemonic African centred agenda under the present global order

The Power of African Cultures Toyin Falola,2003 An analysis of the ties between culture and every aspect of

African life using Africa's past to explain present situations This book focuses on the modern cultures of Africa from the consequences of the imposition of Western rule to the current struggles to define national identities in the context of neo liberal economic policies and globalization The book argues that it is against the backdrop of foreign influences that Africa has defined for itself notions of identity and development African cultures have been evolving in response to change and in other ways solidly rooted in a shared past The book successfully deconstructs the last one hundred and fifty years of cultures that have been disrupted replaced and resurrected The Power of African Cultures challenges many preconceived notions such as male dominance and female submission the supposed unity of ethnic groups and contemporary Western stereotypes of Africans It also shows the dynamism of African cultures to adapt to foreign imposition even as colonial rule forced the adoption of foreign institutions and cultures African cultures appropriated these elements Traditions were reworked symbols redefined and the past situated in contemporary problems in order to accommodate the modern era Toyin Falola is a Fellow of the Nigerian Academy of Letters and Fellow of the Historical Society of Nigeria He is the recipient of the 2006 Cheikh Anta Diop Award for Exemplary Scholarship in African Studies and the 2008 Quintessence Award by the Africa Writers Endowment He holds an honorary doctorate from Monmouth University and he is University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin where he is also the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities His books include Nationalism and African Intellectuals and Violence in Nigeria both from the University of Rochester Press

The Handbook of World Englishes Braj B. Kachru, Yamuna Kachru, Cecil L. Nelson, 2009-02-09 The Handbook of World Englishes is a collection of newly commissioned articles focusing on selected critical dimensions and case studies of the theoretical ideological applied and pedagogical issues related to English as it is spoken around the world Represents the cross cultural and international contextualization of the English language Articulates the visions of scholars from major varieties of world Englishes African Asian European and North and South American Discusses topics including the sociolinguistic contexts of varieties of English in the inner outer and expanding circles of its users the ranges of functional domains in which these varieties are used the place of English in language policies and language planning and debates about English as a cause of language death murder and suicide

Nigerian English David Jowitt, 2018-11-05 Although the past few decades have witnessed growing interest in varieties of English around the world no study of the Nigerian variety intended for the international market has yet been published Making use of well known paradigms the book will relate Nigerian English as a Second Language variety to other World Englishes Its chief overall concern however is to provide a detailed descriptive account of the variety seeking to show what is distinctive about it and also in this perspective distinguishing between more educated and less educated usage After giving a sociolinguistic profile of Nigeria where English today enjoys a more prominent role than ever before it will examine in turn the phonology morpho syntax and lexico semantics of Nigerian English with samples of written texts from the eighteenth century to the present It will also give a comprehensive summary of academic research carried out in the field over the past fifty years In this way the book will provide an introduction to the subject for the benefit of scholars and students in universities in many countries and will serve as a useful companion to other books in De Gruyter Mouton's Dialects of English series World Englishes on the Web Mirka Honkanen, 2020-08-15 World Englishes on the Web focuses on linguistic practices at the intersection of international migration and social media examining the language repertoires of Nigerians living in the United States and their negotiations of identity and authenticity on a Nigerian web forum Based on a large corpus of informal multilingual interactive online writing this book describes how diasporic Nigerians employ African American Vernacular English Nigerian English Nigerian Pidgin and ethnic Nigerian languages in an online community of practice The project combines corpus linguistic methods relying on a corpus management tool custom made for web forum data with ethnographically informed qualitative analyses of morphosyntactic lexical and orthographic features and immigrants language attitudes and ideologies It is relevant particularly for linguists and other social scientists interested in World Englishes the sociolinguistics of globalization and computer mediated communication corpus linguistics and pidgin and creole languages Englishes Around the World: Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Australasia Manfred Görlach, Edgar Werner Schneider, 1997-01-01 The two volumes of Englishes around the World present high quality original research papers written in honour of Manfred Görlach founder and editor of the journal English World Wide and the book series Varieties of English Around the World The papers thematically focus on the field that Manfred Görlach has helped to build and shape Volume 2 of Englishes Around the World presents studies of so called New Englishes post colonial varieties as spoken predominantly in countries of the former British Empire There are five contributions on the Caribbean covering Jamaica Guyana and Trinidad five articles on Africa South Africa East Africa and Nigeria six studies of English in Asian countries Japan the Philippines India Singapore Malaysia and Papua New Guinea and six papers on Australia and New Zealand Topics covered range from sociohistorical causes and processes the nativization of English in different countries or the expression of individual identities by means of the English language through structural descriptions to sociolinguistic psycholinguistic lexicographic pragmatic stylistic and other matters The articles in the respective sections are written by D R Craig L M Haynes P L Patrick K Shields Brodber and L Winer A Banjo V de Klerk R Mesthrie J Schmied and P Silva R W Bailey R Begum and T Kandiah A Gonzalez R R Mehrotra P M hlh usler and M Newbrook L Bauer S Butler M Clyne P Peters and A Delbridge G Tulloch and G W Turner Language Pedagogy and Language Use in Africa Lioba Moshi, 2009-10-23 The study of African language pedagogy and use in the Diaspora was initiated in the 1960s as African countries attained independence from colonial powers In the continent the enthusiasm for the use of indigenous languages and scholarship has remained relatively moderate as scholars are conflicted in their loyalty to imperial languages The attitude towards the use of African languages by African leaders has also hampered scholars efforts to create and sustain the needed visibility for African languages around the world Needless to say the study of African languages is not only critical to the study of language theories but also important in changing Africa's overwhelming reliance on European languages to communicate with each other. The reliance has not only affected the politics of the continent but also its economic wellbeing. An analysis of the enormous developmental challenges facing the African continent will reveal that many of the economic, social, political, and cultural challenges have major language components. It can actually be said that the challenges of development in Africa are either outright language challenges or are language based. More significantly at the social level in many parts of the continent, African languages are now perceived as inadequate means of communication. Language Pedagogy and Language Use in Africa discusses the importance of teaching and using of African languages in the African continent and beyond and provides illustrations of both their direct and indirect use as a result of historical and contemporary contacts, language planning policies, and pedagogical concerns. The book contributes to the on-going discussion on the pedagogy, promotion, and use of African languages both on the continent and in the Diaspora. English in

Cameroon Hans-Georg Wolf, 2013-06-10 The multilingual situation in Cameroon and the status of English as a co-official language constitute a unique and fascinating case for sociolinguistic investigation. Drawing from first-hand material, the author investigates several aspects of this complex configuration, including the historical development of English in Cameroon, the various languages and lingua franca areas, the linguistic policy, the de facto status of English, and the situation in the anglophone provinces. The speech community of the Anglophones is highlighted as a rare example of an ethnicity tied to the second language. Apart from important sociolinguistic findings, the work includes a novel corpus-based analysis of Cameroon English. Certain lexical phenomena are explained by the cognitive coding of culture, particularly the African cultural model of community, which also underlies the self-perception of the Anglophones, a perspective hitherto neglected in the study of the New Englishes. Globalising Sociolinguistics Dick Smakman, Patrick Heinrich, 2015-05-15 This book challenges the predominance of mainstream sociolinguistic theories by focusing on lesser-known sociolinguistic systems from regions of Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, South America, the European Mediterranean, and Slavic regions, as well as specific speech communities such as those speaking Nivkh, Jamaican Creole, North Saami, and Central Yup'ik. In nineteen chapters, the specialist authors look at key sociolinguistic aspects of each region or speech community, such as gender, politeness, strategies, speech patterns, and the effects of social hierarchy on language, concentrating on the differences from mainstream models. The volume, introduced by Miriam Meyerhoff, has been written by the leading expert of each specific region or community and includes contributions by Rajend Mesthrie, Marc Greenberg, and Daming Xu. This publication draws together connections across regions, communities, and considers how mainstream sociolinguistics is incomplete or lacking. It reveals how lesser-known cultures can play an important role in the building of theory in sociolinguistics. Globalising Sociolinguistics is essential reading for any researcher in sociolinguistics and language variation and will be a key reference for advanced sociolinguistics courses. Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors, 2003 This volume lists the work

produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources English as a Local Language Christina Higgins,2009-07-08 When analyzed in multilingual contexts English is often treated as an entity that is separable from its linguistic environment It is often the case however that multilinguals use English in hybrid and transcultural ways This book explores how multilingual East Africans make use of English as a local resource in their everyday practices by examining a range of domains including workplace conversation beauty pageants hip hop and advertising Drawing on the Bakhtinian concept of multivocality the author uses discourse analysis and ethnographic approaches to demonstrate the range of linguistic and cultural hybridity found across these domains and to consider the constraints on hybridity in each context By focusing on the cultural and linguistic bricolage in which English is often found the book illustrates how multilinguals respond to the tension between local identification and dominant conceptualizations of English as a language for global communication Status, Functions, and Prospects of Pidgin English Anne Schröder,2003 All interview transcriptions and almost 150 tables with calculations from the quantitative survey are made available on the accompanying CD ROM Page 4 of cover Focus on Nigeria Gordon Collier,2012 This issue of Matatu offers cutting edge studies of contemporary Nigerian literature a selection of short fiction and poetry and a range of essays on various themes of political artistic socio linguistic and sociological interest Contributions on theatre focus on the fool as dramatic character and on the feminist theatre of exclusion Tracie Uto Ezeajugh Several essays examine the poetry of Hope Eghagha and the Delta writer Tanure Ojaide Studies of the prose fiction of Chinua Achebe Tayo Olafioye Uwem Akpan and Chimamanda Adichie are complemented by a searching expos of the exploitation of Ayi Kwei Armah on the part of the metropolitan publishing world and by a recent interview with the poet Jumoko Verissimo Traditional culture is considered in articles on historical sites in Ile Ife witchcraft in Etsako warfare and the Awonmili women s collective in Awka Linguistically oriented studies consider political speeches drug advertising and Yoruba anthroponyms Performance focused essays focus on Emirate court spectacle durbar Yoruba drum poetry in contemporary media gospel music indigenization and islamization of military music and the role of the filmmaker Contributions of broader relevance deal with Islamic components of Nigerian culture the decline of the educational system and the socio economic impact of acquisitive culture
