New European Identity And Citizenship Research In Migration And Ethnic Relations Series:

New European Identity and Citizenship Remy Leveau, Khajida Mohsen-Finan, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2002 This study undertaken with the support of the Ford Foundation under the scientific leadership of Khadija Mohsen Finan Remy Leveau and Catherine Wihtol de Wenden considers the new forms of citizenship and identity that have emerged within the settlements of immigrant populations in various countries in Europe Through their claims to citizenship shifting religious identities and by occupying the high ground both locally and at European level these communities challenge long standing citizenship models and give full meaning to the concepts of supranational European citizenship The contributors question whether such European citizenship will include all residents of Europe or whether it will serve to increase the exclusion felt by certain groups of migrants In particular the contributors examine the implications of three emerging citizenship trends the impact of the demand for Islam the emergence of undocumented migrants and their inclusion in an increasingly stratified society and finally the rising tide of ordinary or political refugees who are challenging European citizenship on their own terms

The Transformation of Citizenship, Volume 2 Jürgen Mackert, Bryan S. Turner, 2017-03-16 This volume Boundaries of Inclusion and Exclusion examines the many different and newly emerging ways in which citizenship refers to spatial symbolic and social boundaries Today in the context of citizenship we face processes of inclusion and exclusion on national and supranational level but no less on the level of groups and individuals The book addresses these different levels and discusses processes of inclusion and exclusion with regard to spatial social and symbolic boundaries referring to such different problems as political participation migration or identity with regard to religion or the EU This book will appeal to academics working in the field of political theory political sociology and European studies

Ethnic Minorities and Inter-ethnic Relations in Context Karen Phalet, Antal Orkeny, 2017-10-19 This volume is based on papers presented on ethnic minorities and inter ethnic relations in Hungary and The Netherlands which were presented and discussed in three conferences and a series of meetings from 1997 1999 This work builds on comparative studies of the rise of a radical right and the mobilization of anti immigrant feelings It presents cross national comparative research due to the credence that shifting national angles is a powerful strategic tool with which to correct national bias and to uncover submerged or overlooked aspects of specific national cases The book brings together contributions from Hungarian and Dutch scholars in the field of ethnic minorities and inter ethnic relations The two countries are used as exemplary cases of distinct ethno political patterns in Central and Western Europe Combining complementary configurational and dimensional approaches to cross national comparison the diverse forms of ethnic relations in Hungary and The Netherlands are analyzed and competing explanations of ethno political conflict or co ordination are tested in both national contexts

Security, Insecurity and Migration in Europe Gabriella Lazaridis, 2016-04-01 Having often been framed in terms of security concerns migration issues have simultaneously given rise to issues of insecurity on the one hand security of borders political societal and economic security insecurity in the host country on the other social legal and economic concerns about human security with regard to both EU citizens and migrants entering Europe In terms of state security migration is a core target of increasingly globally networked surveillance capabilities whilst with respect to human security it exposes the gap between the protections that migrants formally enjoy under international law and the realities they experience as they travel and work across different countries Drawing on the latest research from across the EU Security Insecurity and Migration explores the concerns of states with regard to migration and the need to protect the fundamental rights of migrants An interdisciplinary examination of the issues of security and insecurity raised by migration for states their citizens and migrants themselves this book will be of interest to scholars of politics sociology and geography researching migration race and ethnicity human and state security and EU politics and policy

East European Diasporas, Migration, and Cosmopolitanism Ulrike Ziemer, Sean P. Roberts, 2013 Following the collapse of the communist regimes in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union there were considerable migration flows the migrations and subsequent diasporas often having special characteristics given the relative lack of migration in communist times and the climate of increasing nationalism which had the potential of working against multiculturalism This book explores these migrations and diasporas and examines the nature of the associated cosmopolitanism

Extra-Territorial Ethnic Politics, Discourses and Identities in Hungary Szabolcs Pogonyi, 2017-07-19 This book explores the causes and consequences of the discursive and legal construction of the Hungarian transborder nation through the institutionalization of non resident citizenship and voting Through the in depth analysis of Hungarian transborder and diaspora politics this book investigates how the political engagement of non resident Hungarians impacts inter and intra state ethnic relations In addition the research also explores how institutional changes and shifting discursive strategies reify and redefine ethnic belonging narratives and the self perception of Hungarians living outside the country The research uses a multidisciplinary qualitative methodology which includes institutional historical rational choice and sociological analysis discourse analysis as well as interpretive methods Through the inventive application of multiple methodologies the book goes beyond the mostly institutional legal analysis dominant in the study of citizenship

Diasporas and Homeland Conflicts Bahar Baser, 2015-03-28 As violent conflicts become increasingly intra state rather than inter state international migration has rendered them increasingly transnational as protagonists from each side find themselves in new countries of residence In spite of leaving their homeland the grievances and grudges that existed between them are not forgotten and can be passed to the next generation This book explores the extension of homeland conflicts into transnational space amongst diaspora groups with particular attention to the interactions between second generation migrants Comparative in approach Diasporas and Homeland Conflicts focuses on the tensions that exist between Kurdish and Turkish populations in Sweden and Germany examining the effects of hostland policies and politics on the construction shaping or elimination of homeland conflicts Drawing on extensive interview material with members of diasporic communities this book sheds fresh light on the influences exercised on conflict dynamics by state policies on migrant incorporation and multiculturalism as well as structures of migrant organizations As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology political science and international studies with interests in migration and diaspora integration and transnational conflict

Illiberal Liberal States Elspeth Guild, Kees Groenendijk, 2016-05-13 Understanding the dynamics of the illiberal practices of liberal states is increasingly important in Europe today This book examines the changing relationship between immigration citizenship and integration at the European and national arenas It studies some of the main effects and questions the comprehensiveness of the exchange and coordination of public responses to the inclusion of third country nationals in Europe as well as their compatibility with a common European immigration policy driven by a rights based approach and the respect of the principles of fair and equal treatment of third country nationals The volume reviews key national experiences of immigration and citizenship laws the use of integration and the moving of ideas between national arenas The framing of integration in immigration and citizenship law and the ways in which policy convergence is being achieved through the EU framework on integration raises a number of conceptual dilemmas and a set of definitional premises in need of reflection and consideration

Paradoxes of Cultural Recognition Sharam Alghasi, 2016-05-13 Explicitly comparative in its approach Paradoxes of Cultural Recognition discusses central issues regarding multiculturalism in today's Europe based on studies of Norway and the Netherlands Distinguishing clearly the four social fields of the media education the labour market and issues relating to gender it presents empirical case studies which offer valuable insights into the nature of majority minority relationships whilst raising theoretical questions relevant for further comparisons With clear comparisons of integration and immigration policies in Europe and engagement with the questions surrounding the need for more culturally sensitive policies this volume will be of interest to scholars and policy makers alike

Work and Organizations in Israel Itzhak Harpaz, 2017-09-04 Since the State of Israel was established its labor force has grown rapidly and has become increasingly diverse in terms of its demographic cultural ethnic and socioeconomic characteristics Israeli work values have shifted towards greater individualism materialism careerism and preference for white collar and knowledge based occupations is evident A major structural change is underway as indicated by the decline of agriculture as a component in the Israeli economy and the growth of the industrial sector mostly towards high technology and innovative enterprises This volume sheds light on trends and developments that have been taking place in the realm of work in Israel in recent years It contains a unique selection of articles presenting empirical evidence of the major features and important changes characterizing work organizations and the regime of work in Israeli society labor relations work values power and management in organizations work in the Kibbutz inter organizational relations women and work migrants and minorities in the Israeli labor force Studies show that another two major trends characterize the contemporary economy and the labor market the trend toward privatization and globalization the results of which are a continuous decrease of job security and an increasing level of unemployed Israeli men and women that are replaced by the low cost labor of foreign workers emigrating from third world countries This timely volume is valuable for its contribution to illuminating the recent changes taking place in the realm of work in Israel and will be of interest to sociologists social scientists and students of Judaica Policy-Making in Britain Maurice Mullard,2005-08-04 The book provides a broad based introduction to policy making in Britain exporing the legacy of the Thatcher era and charting the new context of policy making in the 1990s The authors examine the policy process within its ideological political and economic context discussing both the influence of Europe and the influence of local government Having established a broad framework for analysis the book focuses on a selection of particular policy areas public expenditure the NHS Next Steps water privatisation pensions education and immigration The aim of the book is to give a sense of the actual dynamics of policy making and to encourage students to think about the likely outcomes of policy change while making the connections between British public policy and the environment in which it is shaped

Immigration and Citizenship in an Enlarged European Union Simon McMahon,2015-02-10 A distinctive contribution to the politics of citizenship and immigration in an expanding European Union this book explains how and why differences arise in responses to immigration by examining local national and transnational dimensions of public debates on Romanian migrants and the Roma minority in Italy and Spain The Human Face of Global Mobility Adrian Favell,2017-07-12 Alongside flows of trade and capital the free movement of professionals technical personnel and students is seen as a key aspect of globalization Yet not much detailed empirical research has been completed about the trajectories and experiences of these highly skilled or highly educated international migrants What little is known about these forms of global mobility and the politics that surround them contrasts with the abundant theories and accounts of other types of international migration such as low income economic migration from less developed to core countries in the international political economy Drawing on the work of a long standing discussion group at the Center for Comparative and Global Research of UCLA s International Institute this collection bridges conventional methodological divides bringing together political scientists sociologists demographers and ethnographers It explores the reality behind assumptions about these new global migration trends It challenges widely held views about the elite characteristics of these migrants the costs and consequences of the brain drain said to follow from the migration of skilled workers the determinants of national policies on high skilled migrants and the presumed effortlessness of professional mobility in an integrating world The volume also sheds new light on international student migration the politics of temporary non immigrant workers in the United States new international forms of regulating movement and the realities of the everyday lives of multinational employees in the world s transnational cities Key differences between the regional contexts of this migration in Europe North America and the Asia Pacific are also emphasized Managing Ethnic Diversity Reza Hasmath,2016-05-13 The management of ethnic diversity has become a topical and often controversial subject in recent times with much debate surrounding multiculturalism as a systematic and comprehensive response for dealing with ethnic diversity This book engages with these debates examining the tangible outcomes of multiculturalism as a policy and philosophy in a range of traditional and newer multi ethnic nations Exploring the questions of whether multiculturalism can promote ethnic harmony employment equity and trust between various minority and non minority groups Managing Ethnic Diversity also adopts a comparative perspective on the experiences of multiculturalism in various international contexts in order to examine whether lessons learned from some jurisdictions can be applied to others With an international team of experts presenting the latest research from the UK North America Europe China and Australasia a truly global dialogue is fostered with regard to the utility and limits of multiculturalism in local and comparative contexts As such Managing Ethnic Diversity will appeal to social scientists interested in race and ethnicity multiculturalism and migration

Islam, Migration and Integration A. Kaya, 2009-04-15 This work explores contemporary debates on migration and integration focussing on Euro Muslims It critically engages with republicanist and multiculturalist policies of integration and claims that integration means more than cultural and linguistic assimilation of migrant communities

Immigration, Integration and Mobility Adrian Favell, 2015-05-08 A compilation of Adrian Favell's innovative and agenda setting essays which since the late 1990s have charted the emergence of new migration patterns and politics in Europe Tackling in turn issues of multiculturalism immigrant integration free movement high skilled mobilities new East West migrations and regional integration the collection offers a comprehensive introduction to the dynamic field of international migration studies At the same time it poses a sharp challenge to current complacencies challenging researchers to escape methodological nationalism and the unreflective reproduction of concepts and assumptions in the field as well as embracing new methodologies and theoretical resources Moving fluidly across intellectual boundaries as much as national borders Favell points the way forward to new thinking in this burgeoning and rapidly evolving interdisciplinary field

Minorities of Europeanization Hakan Ovunc Ongur, 2014-11-13 What are the societal effects of Europeanization How successful is the EU's project to create an overarching European identity representative of all its citizens transcending national boundaries and including those previously excluded as national minorities This study addresses these questions by adapting the Social Identity Theory's SIT concept of social identity to the discussions of European identity offering a novel approach that remedies previous definitional and ontological problems of the term The conceptualization of a European social identity is generated here to invite a reconsideration of conventional understandings of how minorities group identities are formed Presenting itself as a challenge to nations and nationality the European integration process has yet to achieve its supra national ideal falling instead into the trap of nationalizing those who are subsumed under the category of minorities in practice arguably because of a faulty theoretical understanding of the term The new Others of Europeanization have been chosen specifically to emphasize despite the EU's united in diversity rhetoric the marked lack of united destiny and common heritage of selected European nationals Among these new Others Russophones in the Baltic states the Roma people populations of the Western Balkans immigrants and guest workers and Muslims residing in European countries have all been excluded from Europe's new social identity Through in depth historical analysis this book aims to correct this problem providing both European studies and broader political science literatures with a new understanding of minorities that is more dynamic both in practice and theory In From the Margins, 2006-01-01 This book focuses at the margins of adult education work and civil society Rather than focusing on active participants and active participation the objective is to scrutinize the whole adult population in terms of participation and to pay special attention to those who are so easily left out of studies concerning adult education learning at work or active participation in civil society The aim of the book is to bring into the discussion the views of those who do not find attending adult education possible and who thus form a challenge for the promotion of active citizenship In the collection of articles researchers from various disciplines and with cross disciplinary interests in adult education and marginalisation meet and discuss with each other within and beyond their own disciplines Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2004
