New Farm Homes for Old Rupert B. Vance, Gordon Williams Blackwell, Howard G. McClain, 1946 Reading List on Housing in the United States, 1948-53 United States. Housing and Home Finance Agency. Office of the Administrator, 1949 The Farm Security Administration and Rural Rehabilitation in the South Charles Kenneth Roberts, 2024-01-12 This book fills an important void in the historical literature on New Deal reform and significantly updates Sidney Baldwin's 1968 book on the FSA Through the lens of the programs of the FSA Charles Kenneth Roberts does an excellent job of relating how New Deal programs attempted to rehabilitate poor rural southerners Aaron D Purcell author of Arthur Morgan A Progressive Vision for American Reform As the roaring twenties turned into the depressed thirties southern farmers far removed from the urban prosperity Americans had enjoyed during the 1920s heyday found already difficult farming conditions greatly intensified by the onset of the Great Depression Agricultural incompetence plagued the rural South through the misuse of land depletion of natural resources and a system of single crop farming that failed to adequately provide for growing families on small farms especially in the cotton producing Southeast Poverty and desperation came to define the farming communities of the rural South both in reality and in Americans collective consciousness In The Farm Security Administration and Rural Rehabilitation in the South Charles Kenneth Roberts traces the administrative and political history of the Farm Security Administration FSA and reconciles the administration's goals with Franklin D Roosevelt's overall vision for the New Deal Roberts takes a grassroots approach to dissecting the FSA's history While other studies have focused on FSA photography or community building or even policy making in terms of top down government directives Roberts focuses on the people and state governments who faced an immediate need to aid southern farmers within their own borders and to boost their states crumbling agricultural economic bases Roberts focuses on rural rehabilitation as a key aspect of the FSA and defines the agency's legacy not in terms of its failures but rather in terms of an idealistic program whose modest successes were ultimately too few to effect real change for southern farmers Though Roosevelt failed to adequately recognize the plight of the southern farmer and political infighting hindered many of the administration's goals the creation of the FSA stands as one of the first efforts to provide sustained relief to struggling southern farmers In light of other federal programs of the era the FSA may seem like a mere footnote to the New Deal outside of its small but revered photography program But as Roberts shows the FSA's legacy has endured to the present day Charles Kenneth Roberts is a lecturer in history at Georgia Perimeter College His articles have appeared in the Alabama Review Southern Historian and Agricultural History

Bibliography on Public Housing and Related Subjects for the Use of Teachers and Students Elizabeth Leonard Carey, 1949 Public Management Sources, 1946 The Literature of the Ozarks Phillip Douglas Howerton, 2019 This book surveys two centuries of Ozarks literature from an Osage creation story to contemporary poetry and fiction This anthology

presents writings from more than forty authors and connects these works to major literary movements while exploring their regional themes and their contributions to the social construction of the Ozarks Library List United States. Department of Agriculture. Library,1949 The South in Modern America Dewey W. Grantham,2001-07-01 The South in Modern America is a lively and illuminating account of the Southern experience since the end of Reconstruction In the twentieth century as in the nineteenth the South has been the region most sharply at odds with the rest of the nation No other part of the country has as clear cut a sectional image The interplay between the South the North and the rest of the nation represents a rich and instructive part of the United States history illustrating much of the nation s conflict and tension the way it has tried to reconcile divergent issues and its struggles to realize its historical ideals In this new treatment of modern Southern history Dewey W Grantham illuminates the features that make the South a distinctive region while clarifying how it has converged socially and politically with the rest of the country during this century Research in Service to Society Guy B. Johnson,Guion Griffis Johnson,2018-07-25 The Institute for Research in Social Science at the University of North Carolina quickly achieved a national reputation for its contribution to pure research university teaching and public affairs From its inception in 1924 it addressed touchy issues such as race relations industrial inequities and political inefficiency in the South Despite worries about academic acceptance and funding the institute s scholars produced research and publications that are landmarks in American social science Originally published in 1980 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value Library List National Agricultural Library (U.S.),1948 A History of Public Administration in the United States Mordecai Lee,2023-10-27 Nowadays we all tend to complain about bureaucracy if only because it touches our daily lives sometimes in frustrating ways This book examines the gradual emergence of American public administration As a history of American bureaucracy it focuses on key and pivotal events in its evolution and development Chapters highlight major issues and controversies including the anti democratic origins of the field Congressional hostility to the bureaucracy if appointed city managers should be subject to recall by voters early limits on the role of women and the establishment of a membership association for practitioners and academics alike an unusual feature in the American professional world This book will appeal to university students university faculty members and academic libraries interested in American government and US history The subject is at the intersection of several academic disciplines including public administration American history political science public management management history and organization theory Technology as Freedom Ronald C. Tobey,2023-11-15 Before 1930 the domestic market for electrical appliances was segmented but New Deal policies and programs created a true mass market reshaping the electrical and housing markets and guiding them toward mandated social goals The New Deal identified electrical refrigeration as a key technology to reform domestic labor raise family health and build family assets New Deal incentives led to nearly fifty percent of Title I National Housing Act loans being used to buy electric refrigerators in the 1930s New Deal policies ultimately created the mass commodity culture of home owning families that typified the conservative 1950s This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996 Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin ,1919 Agricultural Finance Review

,1946 Social Structure and Behavior Robert M. Hauser,David Mechanic,Archibald O. Haller,2013-09-17 Social Structure and Behavior Essays in Honor of William Hamilton Sewell is a collection of 16 essays dealing with the social psychological aspects of schooling and achievement social stratification and mobility measurements and methods and social structures and wellbeing The collection discusses the political dimension of stratification the results of observation of first graders in their reading group assignments against their social background and stereotyping practices held by dominant groups of society Another papers use a causal model to analyze occupational status and earnings of Cuban exiles in the U S other authors discuss the effects of institutionalization of formal employment in Brazil and propose a revision of the Duncan Scale by a more comprehensive set of occupational prestige scale The book also analyzes measurements of ranked preferences using a single latent factor behind the ranked items One authors points that some sociological terms can be misleading in propounding a sound theory when these terms themselves confound what they are supposed to correlate The text also addresses the fundamental problems concerning welfare that include order collective action and consensus This collection of essays can interest social workers sociologists psychologists and researchers involved in community development
